SAINT JOSEPH CATHOLIC CHURCH

God took the fragrance of a flower...
The majesty of a tree...
The gentleness of morning dew...

The calm of a quiet sea...
The beauty of the twilight hour...

The soul
of a starry night...

The laughter of a rippling brook...

The grace of a bird
in flight...

Then God fashioned from these things

A creation like no other,
And when his masterpiece was through

He called it simply - Mother.

PROVERBS 18:20

Thank you to everyone who has made a gift or pledge commitment to our Diocesan Services Appeal so far.

We have a good start to our DSA drive this year. As of 5/03/2020, 169 parishioners have donated $51,425.00.00, over 57.5% of our goal. If you haven't already, please remember to fill out your pledge form and put it in the collection basket or drop it off at the parish office during the week. Or you may submit your gift online at www.dioceseoflansing.org/dsa.

Our gifts to DSA enable our diocese to provide services crucial to our parish. The programs and services funded by DSA offer direct assistance to individuals and families, and to parishes, schools, and Catholic Charities agencies. Evangelization occurs through dozens of ongoing ministries made possible by our contributions to DSA.

Anne Hufnagel ~ principal@mhtparish.com

WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS
(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric's mind)

As I write this, the temperature outside is over 70 degrees for the second day in a row. Trees and flowers have bloomed overnight. The governor is freeing some people to go back to work as Covid-19 cases dwindle slightly. There is a feeling of hope as spring starts to take hold and people anticipate a life approaching what we once knew as normal. A young neighbor even has a sun-burn already.

Most importantly, however, is the news from Bishop Boyea that public Masses will resume in our diocese on May 19th. Just what they will look like hasn't been determined - although there may be some information on that by the time this column goes on-line. Mass is where the essence of our hope lies - the hope of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist.

Fr. Mike has been saying Sunday on-line Masses for a little over a month now and they have been well received. But they are not the same for Fr. Mike, Deacon Jerry and I looking over the empty pews, trying to make eye contact with wooden benches during our homilies. And they certainly have not been the same for anyone watching at home - often alone, always without the Eucharist. At least now, we have a date for the start of the return to our regular liturgical life.

It is going to be an interesting return to all of life's regular activities and we are going to have to get used to a new normal. Many of us will be walking on coals, strictly observing social distancing guidelines, hand-washing recommendations and wearing masks - totally conscious of the fact that we do not have a vaccine against COVID-19 yet and probably won't for a year. Others will be running free, not observing any new safe behavior practices - if you saw on the news how packed the beach was at Grand Haven last week you get the picture. Doctors say there will likely be a strong return of the virus this fall. It could be sooner if we are not careful.

Professional sports leagues are talking about resuming play without any fans in their arenas and stadiums. Movie theater owners are working on plans for social distancing for movie-goers. The restaurant industry will look a lot different next month than we remember - with fewer tables, much greater cleaning and disinfecting, servers with masks and gloves and so on. But will we flock to the movie theaters and restaurants, or will we lay low?

And we have to ask ourselves what our church will look like from an attendance standpoint. Certainly, there is a large group aching to get back to Mass and the Eucharist. But is there also a group of borderline Catholics who have not missed going to Mass for the last two months? Will they come back? I think every parish is asking that question, and we need to pray for all those on the fringes of our faith. We also need to pray that this whole pandemic is a reminder of how little control we really have of our lives and that there is only one constant, one hope - Jesus Christ.

Deacon Eric

Eucharistic Adoration

"Athirst is my soul for God, the living God.
When shall I go and behold the face of God?"

Psalm 42:3

As we are in this time of fast from the Holy Eucharist, hopefully our longing to receive Our Lord is growing. As you desire to receive "the living God" grows, will you consider a weekly or monthly Holy Hour, a time to "behold the face of God"?

Call or text Rebecca at 989-292-2072 with questions.

Her children rise up and call her blessed

Proverbs 31:28

In union, dear Lord, with the priests at every altar of your Church, where your Blessed Body and Blood are being offered to the Father,
I desire to offer you praise and thanksgiving.
I present to you my soul and body,
with the earnest wish that I may be always united to you.

And since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, I ask you to come spiritually into my heart. I unite myself to you, and embrace you with all the affections of my soul.
O let nothing ever separate you from me.
Let me live and die in your love.

Amen.

When we cannot go to the church
let us turn toward the tabernacle;
no wall can shut us out from The Good God.
