Adoration of Our Lord

“While He was with them at table, He took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized Him, but He vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, “Were not our hearts burning within us while He spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?”

Luke 24:30-33

This Bible verse is a beautiful reminder of the value of spending time in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament as we study Sacred Scripture. Let us pray that, like the disciples who walked with Jesus on their way to Emmaus, we will allow Jesus to open the Scriptures for us and that we recognized Him in the Holy Eucharist.

WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS
(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric's mind)

I Just Prayed with Her

During my diaconate formation I did a one-year faith-based practicum by taking the Eucharist each Sunday to Catholics laid up in Sparrow Clinton Hospital. It turned out to be a lesson in humility. I had a phobia of sorts about hospitals. On my second Sunday, I went into one Catholic woman's room and offered her the Eucharist. She declined, apologetically, saying she hadn't been to Mass or confession in awhile. I asked if she would like to say a few prayers with me. I held her hand and we prayed an Our Father, Hail Mary and a Glory Be. By the end, she was crying like a baby - touched by the Lord. But in my mind, I just prayed with her.

A week later, I walked into another Catholic woman's room and she popped up in her bed with a big smile on her face as I started to introduce myself. (I took a quick look over my shoulder to see if one of her long-time friends was perhaps walking in behind me, but there was no one there.) I started to explain why I was there and she said she knew why. In fact, I was bringing her long-time friend with me - Jesus. That's why she was smiling. I brought her the Eucharist, then I just prayed with her. In two weeks, my hospital phobia was gone.

A couple years later, I retired from my job and was still in formation when I was asked if I could substitute for one of our EMs who took the Eucharist to three residents at Clinton Commons. One of those residents was named Therese, a terribly engaging woman, 90 years young. She was very strong in her faith and loved to talk about it. After a few months, the other two women moved to other facilities and the previous EM decided she could no longer tend to Clinton Commons. I left time each Monday for conversation with Therese. I gave her Communion - then I just prayed with her.

A year or so later, Therese's eyesight became so poor she couldn't tend for herself, so she moved to an assisted living facility in Dewitt. I talked to a deacon friend of mine at St. Jude's who added her to the homebound list there. I talked with her a couple times and stopped in for a visit just before COVID-19 hit last year. A couple weeks ago, I was asked by her family to come visit Therese at her daughter's home in Fowler because Therese was in home hospice care. I had one last visit with her. We talked a bit and then I just prayed with her. I was honored to do her funeral vigil and assist at her funeral Mass.

I had seen Therese only once in a year-and-a-half, but her daughters told me that she talked of me often. It was humbling to hear how much my visits had meant to her.

But this is not "deacon-only" territory, my friends. We can all do this. Most of us know someone who is sick, lonely or in a facility. And really, the Lord does all the work -- we just need to pray with them.

DIVINE MERCY PRAYERS FOR GRIEF

Offered by the St. Joseph Prayer Tree and Path of Divine Hope Grief Ministry

The Path of Divine Hope Grief Ministry invites those who have experienced the passing of a loved one this past year to join us after the 5P mass on April 24th as we hold a memorial reflection with Divine Mercy chaplet. The chaplet was recommended by our Lord to St. Faustina for the repose of souls and for their families. The death of our loved ones is precious time to our Lord. We hope that you can join us for this special time of remembrance and prayer.

PARENTS OF SMALL CHILDREN

Please be mindful that a small child's fussing is amplified by the hard surfaces we have and carries well throughout the church, even when full of people. Out of respect for your fellow parishioners, I would ask you to please take your child/children to the Cry Room when they begin to fuss. That will allow us to continue to pray the Mass with devotion and reverence. Thank - you! ~ Fr. Mike

Thank you to everyone who has made a gift or pledge commitment to our Diocesan Services Appeal so far.

Our DSA drive, is still going strong. As of 4/11/2021, families have donated $66,027.00, over 68.9% of our goal. If you haven't already, please remember to fill out your pledge form and put it in the collection basket or drop it off at the parish office during the week. Or you may submit your gift online at www.dioceseoflansing.org/dsa.

Our gifts to DSA enable our diocese to provide services crucial to our parish. The programs and services funded by DSA offer direct assistance to individuals and families, and to parishes, schools, and Catholic Charities agencies. Evangelization occurs through dozens of ongoing ministries made possible by our contributions to DSA.

3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Greeting

We pray the Sign of the Cross. The priest welcomes us.

Penitential Rite

We remember our sins and ask God for mercy.

Gloria

An ancient song praising God dating back to the 6th century

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

Collect (Opening Prayer)

All of our prayers are "collected" into one, when the priest prays the opening prayer

LITURGY OF THE WORDFirst Reading (Acts 3:13-15, 17-19)

Peter said to the people:

"The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and denied in Pilate's presence when he had decided to release him.

You denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a murderer be released to you.

The author of life you put to death, but God raised him from the dead; of this we are witnesses.

Now I know, brothers, that you acted out of ignorance, just as your leaders did; but God has thus brought to fulfillment what he had announced beforehand through the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer.

Repent, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be wiped away

Responsorial Psalm (Ps 4:2, 4, 7-8, 9)
Lord, let your face shine on us.

Second Reading (1 John 2:1-5a)

My children, I am writing this to you so that you may not commit sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous one.

He is expiation for our sins, and not for our sins only but for those of the whole world.

The way we may be sure that we know him is to keep his commandments.

Those who say, "I know him," but do not keep his commandments are liars, and the truth is not in them.

But whoever keeps his word, the love of God is truly perfected in him.."

Gospel Reading (Lk 24:35-48)

The two disciples recounted what had taken place on the way, and how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

While they were still speaking about this, he stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you."

But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost.

Then he said to them, "Why are you troubled?

And why do questions arise in your hearts?

Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself.

Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have."

And as he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet.

While they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed, he asked them, "Have you anything here to eat?"

They gave him a piece of baked fish; he took it and ate it in front of them.

He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled."

Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures.

And he said to them, "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

Profession of Faith (Creed)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer of the Faithful or General Intercessions

A collection of short prayers of petition. After each petition is said the congregation will respond by saying, "Lord, hear our prayer." We pray for the Church, Her leadership, the World and it's leadership and then we pray for our parish and local needs.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

The Liturgy of the Eucharist, along with communion, is the most sacred part of the Mass. Catholics will kneel during the Eucharistic prayer, but non-Catholics may remain seated.

3RD SUNDAY OF EASTERApril 18, 2021*Presentation of the Gifts and Preparation of the Gifts

The bread and wine are brought to the altar along with any monetary offerings for the poor that may have been collected from the congregation. These offerings as well as the bread and wine (our "first fruits") represent the offering of ourselves (our lives) to God.

Preface and Sanctus

After the Preface prayer is prayed we all join in the song of praise being sung by the saints and angels as they gather around God's throne in heaven. Sanctus Holy, holy, holy Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Eucharistic Prayer

At this time the congregation will kneel.

Pater Noster (Our Father or Lord's Prayer)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the Kingdom, and the Power and the glory forever, Amen

Fraction Rite — Agnus Dei (Lamb of God) Communion Rite (and Prayer for Spiritual Communion)

Act of Spiritual Communion (for those worshipping at home) My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
