FRIENDS

The value of friends changes over time, just as the value of time changes our relationships with friends. A few hours after I send this column off to be printed in the bulletin, I will be off to the Detroit area to share in a celebration for a long-time, high school friend who will be receiving an award for decades of service to our school, Detroit Catholic Central.

Though we graduated 51 years ago, there will probably still be 20 or so classmates there to support our friend Carmine. There were 30 who contributed to a substantial financial gift for him, at least, in part, to thank him for his efforts in keeping so many of us connected over the years. When our 50th class reunion was canceled last year, we had about 90 guys (it's an all-boys school) out of about 160 living classmates listed as "probable" or "for sure." Most of that due to Carmine's efforts. Many classes would like that turnout for a 20th reunion.

The school has a reputation, especially outstate, of being a sports factory. But it's academic team has gone to the national Quiz Bowl regularly and it has produced many religious vocations. Catholic high school education is very expensive today, but when I went there the students were primarily from blue-collar, working class families. I think our long-time friendships were born of that fact, that we were a family as classmates because we came from similar families.

Yesterday, I was with a newer group of friends - a few deacons and wives from the Lansing Diocese deacon class of 2019. We shared remembrances of formation and of our experiences in the first two years of our ministry. (We thought we were going to share some nice spring weather out on a friend's deck, but we all know how last Sunday turned out to be a lot more like October, than late May.) And we shared plenty of laughs, as we remembered how our eclectic group bonded.

Both of these gatherings made me reflect a bit on the value of friendship, especially of Christian friendship. There is a bond among Christian friends that transcends bonds we create through work or where we live. Catholic Central's motto has always been "Goodness, Discipline and Knowledge." It's patron is the Blessed Virgin Mary. And I think that it's not the school, but our Catholic faith that has been the strongest link over the last 50+ years. Service to Christ is most assuredly the bond among my deacon friends and wives. We are friends in Jesus. What a novel concept. Why don't we all give it a try?

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Greeting

We pray the Sign of the Cross. The priest welcomes us.

Penitential Rite

We remember our sins and ask God for mercy.

Gloria

An ancient song praising God dating back to the 6th century

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

Collect (Opening Prayer)

All of our prayers are "collected" into one, when the priest prays the opening prayer

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading (Dt 4:32-34, 39-40)

Moses said to the people:

"Ask now of the days of old, before your time, ever since God created man upon the earth; ask from one end of the sky to the other: Did anything so great ever happen before? Was it ever heard of?

Did a people ever hear the voice of God speaking from the midst of fire, as you did, and live?

Or did any god venture to go and take a nation for himself from the midst of another nation, by testings, by signs and wonders, by war, with strong hand and outstretched arm, and by great terrors, all of which the LORD, your God, did for you in Egypt before your very eyes?

This is why you must now know, and fix in your heart, that the LORD is God in the heavens above and on earth below, and that there is no other. You must keep his statutes and commandments that I enjoin on you today, that you and your children after you may prosper, and that you may have long life on the land which the LORD, your God, is giving you forever."

Responsorial Psalm (Ps 33:4-5, 6, 9, 18-19, 20, 22)

Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

Second Reading (Rom 8:14-17)

Brothers and sisters:

For those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God.

For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry, "Abba, Father!"

The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if only we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him

Gospel Reading (Mt 28:16-20)

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them.

When they all saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted.

Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me.

Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.

And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

Profession of Faith (Creed)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer of the Faithful or General Intercessions

A collection of short prayers of petition. After each petition is said the congregation will respond by saying, "Lord, hear our prayer."

We pray for the Church, Her leadership, the World and it's leadership and then we pray for our parish and local needs.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

The Liturgy of the Eucharist, along with communion, is the most sacred part of the Mass.

Catholics will kneel during the Eucharistic prayer, but non-Catholics may remain seated.

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

May 30, 2021

Presentation of the Gifts and Preparation of the Gifts

The bread and wine are brought to the altar along with any monetary offerings for the poor that may have been collected from the congregation. These offerings as well as the bread and wine (our "first fruits") represent the offering of ourselves (our lives) to God.

Preface and Sanctus

After the Preface prayer is prayed we all join in the song of praise being sung by the saints and angels as they gather around God's throne in heaven.

Sanctus Holy, holy, holy Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Eucharistic Prayer

At this time the congregation will kneel.

Pater Noster (Our Father or Lord's Prayer) Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the Kingdom, and the Power and the glory forever, Amen

Fraction Rite — Agnus Dei (Lamb of God) Communion Rite (and Prayer for Spiritual Communion)

Act of Spiritual Communion (for those worshipping at home) My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
