18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Amen, amen, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave the bread from heaven; my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."
Jn 6:32-33

A religious painting depicting Jesus Christ with his arms raised, surrounded by a group of people in traditional attire.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

St. Joseph is a place of refreshment, peace and love, a place of ministry and renewal. We welcome you to be part of our faith community where the Word of God is proclaimed, friendship is offered and the Sacraments are celebrated.

Calling All Sinners

Jesus said, "Those who are healthy do not need a physician, but the sick do, I have not come to call the righteous to repentance but sinners."

Luke 5:31-32

If we are honest with ourselves, we are all sinners in need of God's love & mercy. Adoration is not just for the "saints," it is for all of us who are sinners and are struggling in love. Make an appointment with the Divine Physician!

First Friday/First Saturday Exposition

The Blessed Sacrament will be Exposed on Friday, August 6 following 8:30 a.m. Mass - August 7th prior to 8:30 a.m. Mass. You are welcome to stop in, without an appointment, at anytime, for as long or as short as you would like. However, in order to have the Blessed Sacrament Exposed we must have someone in attendance as all times.

Subs are needed at the following times:

Friday: 10 a.m., noon, 2 & 3 p.m.

Saturday: midnight, 1, 2, & 4 a.m.

Please text/call Rebecca 989-292-2072 if you will attend for one of these hours.

THE SANCTUARY LAMP

THE SANCTUARY LAMP WILL BURN FROM AUGUST 1ST - AUGUST 7TH

For: Special Intentions

THE PARISH OFFICE SUMMER HOURS WILL BE:

MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, AND THURSDAY

9:00 A.M. to NOON

1:00 P.M. to 5:30 P.M.

Summer Reflections

A busy week just concluded for us - a week that calls for reflection.

- Tuesday started with my weekly visit to Grace Haven to conduct a Communion Service. Afterwards, I changed into a T-shirt and shorts as the temperature rose and my wife and I headed off on a day trip (actually more like a half-day trip) to the Sleeping Bear Dunes. When we got off the highway near Clare, the temperature was 86 degrees. When we arrived at the campground where my son and his family were staying, it was 68 degrees - Pure Michigan. We all then took the Scenic Drive through the Sleeping Bear National Park, including an extensive hike with the grandkids up and down dunes (which brought to mind the old country song "I ain't as good as I once was").

But the reflection I took away from the drive was of the awesome power of our Creator and the beauty he created for us. A Pure Michigan scene given to us by a loving God.

- Tuesday night as we were driving back, we were approaching the merge of U.S. 10 and U.S. 127 that was under construction. There were no lines painted on the new asphalt and all I could see in the dark were orange and white barrels. So I did my best to stay between them, hoping I hadn't got on the wrong side of the initial set of barrels. After a "ker-thump" when we dropped down from new asphalt onto old, we were on the only southbound lane of 127. Right after the rest stop, however, all I could see was a left lane sign to Midland and a hundred barrels. I went right at a gap, which turned out to be a path to an exit. So I got off and then right back on the freeway at a point where the road construction was coming to an end.

My reflection is that this was a bit of a metaphor for a Christian life. Sometimes there are no lines where we are driving. It's dark and we're alone. That's the time to take an exit from the life we are living, pause, then take the on-ramp toward the Lord. It may be through prayer, Confession, counseling or a combination of actions, but we know we need to get back to a life lived between the lines God gave us.

I actually had a couple more reflections, but since this is a column and not a book, I have to wrap this up. But not before I offer this suggestion: take some time before summer ends and reflect on your blessings. Pure Michigan is good; Pure Jesus is better.

Right to Life of Michigan

Do you have a beautiful baby in your family? Clinton County Right to Life is seeking beautiful babies to enter the contest held at its booth during the St. Johns Mint Festival.

Because this is a fundraiser, the votes are linked to donations (i.e. a $1.00 donation equals 100 votes). The top three vote-getters receive gift cards worth, $75, $50 and $25 respectively. All entries receive a book. Entry fee is $5.00. Entry deadline is August 8th. Call Mary Beth at 989-227-0088 for entry forms.

St. Vincent de Paul Is looking for volunteers.

The St. Vincent de Paul store in St. Johns is recruiting additional store volunteers. We have 2-3 hour shifts. We use the resources from our store to assist families with emergency needs such as rent, utilities, clothing, household items, etc. Our volunteers experience a huge amount of satisfaction knowing the time they donate is making a difference in someone else's life.

We especially are looking for people to assist in our intake area. These functions would include loading/unloading carts with donated items. The intake volunteers would need to be able to lift items up to 25 lbs.

We could also use additional volunteers to process donations, others to price donations and cashiers.

If you would like to explore volunteer opportunities, please call 989 292 7057.

Women's Weekend Retreat - Rediscovering Jesus
September 17 - 19, 2021 or
October 8 - 10, 2021
St. Francis Retreat Center,
DeWitt MI

Drawing on the wisdom of the book, "Rediscover Jesus" by Matthew Kelly, we will be revisiting what we know about the personhood and divinity of Jesus Christ. From the Incarnation to the Resurrection and beyond we will strive to deepen our understanding of what Jesus said about who he is. What if Jesus really is who he said he is? "What if it's all true"?

As Christians we believe that we know who Jesus is. We go to church regularly and receive Jesus in the Sacrament of the Eucharist. But when was the last time we pondered a response to this question, as we might have it asked by people outside the Church. Your answer could lead down a path of transformation. Who Jesus really is has everything to do with who we are called to be.

Suggested donation for the weekend is $185.00

This retreat is open to any woman, from any parish or Diocese.

To register for this event, please contact St. Francis Retreat Center.

Ten Commandments of Human Relations

1. Speak to people, there is nothing as nice as a cheerful word of greeting.
2. Smile at people, it takes 72 muscles to frown and 14 muscles to smile.
3. Call people by name. The sweetest music to anyone's ears is the sound of his or her name.
4. Be friendly and helpful. If you would have friends - be friendly.
5. Be cordial. Speak and act as if everything you do is genuine pleasure.
6. Be sincerely interested in people.
7. Be generous with praise - cautious with criticism.
8. Be considerate of the feelings of others, it will be appreciated.
9. Be thoughtful of the opinion of others.
10. Be alert to give service. What counts most in life is what we do for others.

In-Person Event ~ August 22, 2021

St. Joseph-Pewamo invites you to join them on Sunday, August 22, 6:00 p.m. for a speaker Celebrating the Year of St. Joseph entitled "St. Joseph: The Pillar of Families" with guest speaker Cami Mann. St. Joseph was the head of the Holy Family. Through this role he became the pillar of families by protecting his family in all ways. The family, which is founded and given life by love, is meant to be an effective sign of Christ in the world. So it is no wonder that the Evil One wants to destroy it. Join us as we reflect on how we can promote families in our faith and out society. Learn more at:

The FIRST Annual Michigan Catholic Women's Conference

Women from five Diocese - Detroit, Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo, Lansing, and Saginaw - come together to focus on their faith and experience the fellowship of sisterhood in Christ Jesus. Throughout the day, women will be encouraged and inspired to focus and grow their faith by hearing from Catholic speakers, engaging in praise and worship music, and celebrating holy Mass with our bishops. The conference will be held at the Lansing Center in Lansing on Oct. 16
