He said to them,
 "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until
 you leave from there.
 Whatever place does not welcome you or
 listen to you, leave
 there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them." So they went off and preached repentance.

Eucharistic Adoration

St. Kateri Tekakwitha (1656 to 1680)

Memorial July 14

Native American Agonquin-Mohawk Indian known for her virtue of Chastity.

Do we love the Eucharistic Lord? One of the best ways to grow in the love of our Eucharistic Jesus is to spend time with Him in adoration. Blessed Kateri knew his as she would spend as much time as her duties allowed in Church adoring the Blessed Sacrament. Even a bad snowstorm wouldn't stop her as she would tread through knee deep snow to spend more time with our beloved Lord.

If you are interested in committing to spending time in adoration of Our Lord for one hour per month or one hour per week or in being a sub, call/text Rebecca at 989-292-2072 for more information.

Lyres and Liars

Psalm 57 came up in my morning prayers last week. It contains the word "lyre," considered one of King David's favorite musical instruments:

*I will sing your praise, Awake, my soul
Awake lyre and harp, I will awake the dawn.*

Later that day, I heard a Sirius XM host on the radio admit to being a liar, having flown in and out of New York City for business during the height of the pandemic - a time that included strict New York quarantine restrictions. He said he used a false name.

"Lyre" and "liar" on the same day, there's definitely a column there I thought. But where?

The word liar, made me think of an old joke that involves the greatest liar of all time - the devil. The joke itself, however, starts in heaven with a politician standing in front of St. Peter at the gates of heaven and St. Peter says:

"Well Senator, we don't see many of your profession here, It takes a lot of chutzpah (remember St. Peter grew up Jewish)

To think you've earned a right to heaven after making hundreds of empty promises to your constituents over the years.

My records show you lied to them, while lining your pockets with gold. But since you're already here, I'll let you decide where you spend eternity.

You can spend one day in heaven and one day in hell and then choose."

The senator agreed and spent the day in heaven, just floating about while angels played beautiful music on lyres and harps for the Lord. The senator was not all that impressed. The next day, the senator was in hell, but it was not as he had imagined.

He was at the first tee on Augusta National, his favorite golf course. He went on to make a hole-in-one on every hole, and celebrated with champagne, caviar and lobster, while reuniting with his old colleagues.

The senator picked hell when given the choice, but when St. Peter returned him there, the senator found nothing but wailing and grinding of teeth, garbage heaps everywhere and the acrid smell of burning tires. He confronted the Devil, saying "I was here yesterday and there was golf and wine and fine foods and today this (expletive deleted)." The Evil One smiled and said "yesterday, I was campaigning, today I am elected."

Well, once again, I'm running out of space before making my point. Then again, maybe the joke is the point. It's not an attack on politicians as much as it is a wake-up call for all of us who lie to ourselves about our relationship with the Lord. Let's get to Reconciliation and get right with God.

(BTW, a lyre is a "U-shaped" stringed instrument with a guitar-like bridge. A liar is someone who doesn't tell the truth. A lier is a person lying in a horizontal position.)

St. Vincent de Paul Is looking for volunteers.

The St. Vincent de Paul store in St. Johns is recruiting additional store volunteers. We have 2-3 hour shifts. We use the resources from our store to assist families with emergency needs such as rent, utilities, clothing, household items, etc. Our volunteers experience a huge amount of satisfaction knowing the time they donate is making a difference in someone else's life.

We especially are looking for people to assist in our intake area. These functions would include loading/unloading carts with donated items. The intake volunteers would need to be able to lift items up to 25 lbs.

We could also use additional volunteers to process donations, others to price donations and cashiers.

If you would like to explore volunteer opportunities, please call 989 292 7057.

LORD, LET US SEE
YOUR KINDNESS, AND GRANT US YOUR SALVATION.

The Food Box

Donations help families in our community through the Emergency Food Assistance Program at Capital Area Community Services (CACS). Donations can be placed in the wooden box in the back of church, next to the free resources rack.

If each family brought just one item for the Food Box with them on Sunday, we could fill that wooden box every week.

Receiving Holy Eucharist on the tongue.

For those of you who wish to partake of Holy Communion on the tongue, Fr. Mike will be distributing the Eucharist both ways (by hand and on the tongue). If you wish to receive on the tongue, please only go to Fr. Mike as he is the only one distributing the Eucharist both ways.

Thank-You

Watch your step on our steps!

The stairs leading to the main wooden doors and to the Cass St. wooden doors are over 100 years old, and they are starting to show their age.

Please be careful as you go up and down the stairs.

We're talking with contractors to get them repaired, but it's likely to be several month's before the work is done.

HOMEBOUND AND ELDERLY VISITS

Fr. Mike will be scheduling visits on Thursday Afternoons

Been cooped up for a while and can't get out to go to Mass or confession? Good News! Fr. Mike is making home visits to the home-bound and elderly of our parish. The purpose of the visits will be to hear the person's confession, distribute communion and celebrate the Sacrament of the Sick with those who wish to receive that Sacrament. Thursday afternoons have been reserved on Fr. Mike's calendar for this purpose but you can make arrangements for him to visit you anytime. To schedule a visit from Fr. Mike please call the parish office. To schedule a visit for someone else you must be a family member. Please indicate if that person is able to receive the Eucharist and have been informed not to eat immediately prior to Fr. Mike's visit. Otherwise, Fr. Mike will not bring Communion with him when he visits.
