Fourth of July

Well, I suppose the first item of business today is to wish everyone a "Happy Fourth of July" or perhaps more fittingly, "Happy Independence Day." This year it does feel a bit more like "Independence Day" than it did last year, because virtually all of the restrictions imposed as a result of the coronavirus have been lifted. There is a palpable feel of freedom in the air that's been missing for more than a year.

In preparing for this column, I decided to check out some historical facts about this holiday and found a few fun facts that might win one of us a trivia contest sometime. For example, our second president, John Adams refused to celebrate the new country's independence on succeeding July Fourths. He felt in his heart that the holiday should be on July 2nd because that was the day in 1776 when the Continental Congress agreed to declare the colonies' independence. The resolution, however, wasn't formally adopted until two days later by that group of statesmen - hence the holiday's declaration date.

I wonder, however, if Adams' stance might have been more a matter of of saving face because Adams wrote to his wife Abigail that July 2 "will be celebrated, by succeeding Generations, as the great anniversary Festival" and that the celebration should include "Pomp and Parade...Games, Sports, Guns, Bells, Bonfires and Illuminations from one End of this Continent to the other" (history.com). He certainly wouldn't be the last politician to stick to his story despite overwhelming opposition.

If we wanted to make it a legally-enacted celebration, our founding fathers would have picked August 2nd, because that's the date when most of the signatures on the Declaration of Independence were inked. But think about it.

I mean "who wants to celebrate 'the Second of August?'" (No offense to anyone whose birthday is August 2nd - "party on Wayne, party on Garth".) That date just doesn't roll off the tongue like "the Fourth of July." And one more fun Fourth fact to put forth on this Fourth is that coincidentally, both Adams and his successor as president, Thomas Jefferson, died on July 4, 1826. The cause for a July 2nd celebration died that day as well.

Wow, I'm almost out of space and I haven't mentioned anything about God, religion or theology. But I think it's important to remember that God has truly blessed this country and its people. Our country wasn't perfect then and it is not perfect now. But this is not the space to debate its flaws. It is the space, however, to say "Thank you Lord for our country."

Directed Ignatian Weekend Retreat
July 11 - 17, 2021
St. Francis Retreat Center,
DeWitt MI

For men and women. This silent Ignatian retreat is built around the elements of Lectio Divina and the Examen prayer of St. Ignatius of Loyola. On this retreat, you meet daily with a spiritual director, who will help you review your life from a spiritual, God-Centered perspective. The cost is $620 per person, this includes all meals, materials, lodging, and spiritual direction. A non-refundable deposit of $75 is requested with your registration. Register online at www.stfrancis.ws or call the Retreat Center at 517-669-8321

St. Vincent de Paul Is looking for volunteers.

The St. Vincent de Paul store in St. Johns is recruiting additional store volunteers. We have 2-3 hour shifts. We use the resources from our store to assist families with emergency needs such as rent, utilities, clothing, household items, etc. Our volunteers experience a huge amount of satisfaction knowing the time they donate is making a difference in someone else's life.

We especially are looking for people to assist in our intake area. These functions would include loading/unloading carts with donated items. The intake volunteers would need to be able to lift items up to 25 lbs.

We could also use additional volunteers to process donations, others to price donations and cashiers.

If you would like to explore volunteer opportunities, please call 989 292 7057.

Watch your step on our steps!

The stairs leading to the main wooden doors and to the Cass St. wooden doors are over 100 years old, and they are starting to show their age.

Please be careful as you go up and down the stairs.

We're talking with contractors to get them repaired, but it's likely to be several month's before the work is done.

Rest In Peace

Our prayers and sympathies to the family and friends of:
John Ballinger

THE 14th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Greeting

We pray the Sign of the Cross. The priest welcomes us.

Penitential Rite

We remember our sins and ask God for mercy.

Gloria

An ancient song praising God dating back to the 6th century

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

Collect (Opening Prayer)

All of our prayers are "collected" into one, when the priest prays the opening prayer

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

(Ez 2:2-5)

As the LORD spoke to me, the spirit entered into me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me:

Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, rebels who have rebelled against me;

they and their ancestors have revolted against me to this very day.

Hard of face and obstinate of heart are they to whom I am sending you.

But you shall say to them: Thus says the LORD GOD!

And whether they heed or resist—for they are a rebellious house—they shall know that a prophet has been among them.

Responsorial Psalm

(Ps 123:1-2, 2, 3-4)

Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for His mercy.

Second Reading

(2 Cor 12:7-10)

Brothers and sisters:

That I, Paul, might not become too elated, because of the abundance of the revelations, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, an angel of Satan, to beat me, to keep me from being too elated.

Three times I begged the Lord about this, that it might leave me, but he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness."

I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses, in order that the power of Christ may dwell with me.

Therefore, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and constraints, for the sake of Christ; for when I am weak, then I am strong.

Gospel Reading

(Mk 6:1-6)

Jesus departed from there and came to his native place, accompanied by his disciples.

When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished.

They said, "Where did this man get all this?

What kind of wisdom has been given him?

What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands!

Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon?

And are not his sisters here with us?"

And they took offense at him.

Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house."

So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them.

He was amazed at their lack of faith.

Profession of Faith (Creed)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer of the Faithful or General Intercessions

A collection of short prayers of petition. After each petition is said the congregation will respond by saying, "Lord, hear our prayer."

We pray for the Church, Her leadership, the World and it's leadership and then we pray for our parish and local needs.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

The Liturgy of the Eucharist, along with communion, is the most sacred part of the Mass. Catholics will kneel during the Eucharistic prayer, but non-Catholics may remain seated.

Presentation of the Gifts and Preparation of the Gifts

The bread and wine are brought to the altar along with any monetary offerings for the poor that may have been collected from the congregation. These offerings as well as the bread and wine (our "first fruits") represent the offering of ourselves (our lives) to God.

Preface and Sanctus

After the Preface prayer is prayed we all join in the song of praise being sung by the saints and angels as they gather around God's throne in heaven.

Sanctus Holy, holy, holy Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Eucharistic Prayer

At this time the congregation will kneel.

Pater Noster (Our Father or Lord's Prayer) Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the Kingdom, and the Power and the glory forever, Amen

Fraction Rite — Agnus Dei (Lamb of God) Communion Rite (and Prayer for Spiritual Communion)

Act of Spiritual Communion (for those worshipping at home) My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
