Respect Life Month Begins

Heavenly Father, the beauty and dignity of human life was the crowning of your creation. You further ennobled that life when your Son became one with us in his incarnation. Help us to realize the sacredness of human life and to respect it from the moment of conception until the last moment at death. Give us courage to speak with truth and love and with conviction in defense of life. Help us to extend the gentle hand of mercy and forgiveness to those who do not reverence your gift of life. To all, grant pardon for the times we have failed to be grateful for your precious gift of life or to respect it in others. We ask this in Jesus' Name. Amen

A 5 TO 50 THANK YOU

"Thank you, Jesus for all the people you put in my life." That's my first thought after a weekend on the go from St. Johns to Dearborn to Brighton to St. Joseph (MI) to Racine (WI) and back to St. Johns from Friday afternoon until Monday afternoon. It was a weekend that had me reflecting on both the past and the future.

On the way to Dearborn for my 50th (+1) high school class reunion (Detroit Catholic Central, 1970), I stopped at Holy Sepulcher Cemetery in Southfield to meet a few classmates to say a rosary for the Basilian priests who have died since teaching us. "Thank you Jesus for the priests and seminarians who helped form me as a person - true to the school motto 'Goodness, Discipline and Knowledge.'"

There are a lot of people who never go to class reunions, but I enjoy them. As much as I like talking to the guys with whom I've kept touch over the years, it's equally enjoyable to learn about the lives of those I never knew then. "Thank you Jesus for putting so many loyal friends into my life."

Saturday morning's planned reunion event got canceled, so my wife and I went to our great niece's softball game. An unexpected cancellation turned into a chance to visit family. "Thank you Lord, for my nieces and nephews."

After that was a quick stop in Brighton with some more high school friends for a tour of great classic cars - part of The Lingenfelter Collection. Then it was on to Mass and a quick trip to Racine, via St. Joseph. "Thank you Jesus for keeping us safe on our journey this weekend."

There we were able to catch a couple soccer games for an 11-year-old grandson and a 5-year old granddaughter. If you've never seen a soccer game played by 5-year-olds, you haven't lived. Some people refer to those games as "amoeba ball" because you mostly see a clump of players who move around like an amoeba under a microscope. Unfortunately, the ball often squirted free, and our team started playing "follow the leader" - chasing the other team as they followed the ball, which often found its way into the back of our net. Nobody on our team seemed upset about that fact. And everybody was happy with their after-game snacks. "Thank you Jesus for the people you've put in my life, whether I've known them for five years or for 50 +. Thank you Lord for a week-end free of angst, anger and TV news - and thank you for 5-year-olds who just enjoy chasing a ball around for a half hour because it's fun."

Calling all Prayer Warriors

Prayer is as essential to the life of the Church as breathing is to each human life. These chaotic and troubled times call for us to come together as a Diocese in prayer. St. Joe's have been signed up to provide prayer warriors for Tuesday, October 5th from 6:00 a.m. until Noon. We need volunteers to cover each of these hours at St. Michael's. ## I'm Glad You Asked That!: Questions From Parishioners, By: Fr. John Noone

Question: Please explain the Pope as the successor of Peter?

Answer: This is the way Jesus set it up. The office of Peter, the visible head of the Church on earth, was created by Jesus and given the promise that the gates of Hades would not prevail against it. This means that the office will remain, even after the occupant has gone to his eternal reward. The Lord Jesus is the one who gave His Apostles the responsibility to bind and loose and is also the one who does the building. In this action He endowed His community with a structure that is to remain until the Kingdom is full achieved. The Apostles recognized this because they elected the successor for Judas (Acts 1:15-26). If there were no visible head (successor of Peter) and bishops (successors of the Apostles) to support him, anarchy and chaos would result. Without the visible and physical presence of the successors of Peter and the Apostles to continually interpret and apply what Jesus left us, we would not be of one faith (Ephesians 4:5). If there were no visible leadership, it would be like giving the people of the United States the Constitution and Bill of Rights and after President Washington dies saying, "you're on your own now: no president, no congress, and no supreme court; may the spirit of Jefferson be with you." As evidence of this, just look at the more than 34,000 Protestant denominations which currently exist without a commonality of faith.

This is the first of four questions that will appear here throughout the month of October. Permission from Fr. Noone was given to publish this in our bulletin.
