Eucharistic Adoration

“Kneel down and render the tribute of your presence and devotion to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Confide all your needs to Him, along with those of others. Speak to Him with filial abandonment, give free rein to your heart, and give Him complete freedom to work in you as He thinks best.”

St. Padre Pio (Memorial October 23)

We are in need of regularly scheduled adorers on First Fridays/Saturdays. These are the times that we are looking for a second adorer (only one hour commitment per month):

First Friday: 2 & 3 p.m.

Saturday: midnight, 1, 4 & 5 a.m.

We are also in need of subs. If you are interested in being a part of this beautiful prayer ministry, please call/text Rebecca at 989-292-2072.

WELCOME BACK - AGAIN!

(Please read Deacon Marv's insightful follow-up in the bulletin to my column last week on home caregivers. With his "legal eyes" he looks at the caregiver situation from an insightful perspective.)

Welcome to "Welcome Back Sunday." "Wait a minute," you say, "didn't we have a Welcome Back Sunday at Pentecost? And didn't we have one last summer? Let's get this party started!" Well, the answer to the questions are "Yes and Yes," we at St. Joe's have celebrated the return of parishioners a couple times in the past year, but today's welcoming, with name tags and ice cream, is part of a diocesan effort to help people feel as close to "normal" at church as they have been since the pandemic started in March 2020.

Last summer, we welcomed anyone who wanted to come back after the church had been on lockdown for three months, but there was no Sunday obligation. On Pentecost this year, the Sunday obligation was re-instated and we welcomed people with yard signs and devotional candles. Liturgically, we made all the pews in the nave of the church open, while leaving social-distance tape on pews in the addition. We brought back the opening and closing processions and put songbooks back in the pews. Now (in Welcome Back - Part Three) we will have an Offertory procession again and, in a couple weeks, altar servers will also return. We are almost completely back. It's time to fully embrace our liturgy once again.

NOTE: Part of welcoming back means getting more involved in the parish. That not only means signing up to be a Eucharistic Minister or a lector, but, as Fr. Mike noted last week, it means letting us know if you have special skills that sometimes may be needed for the parish, or for a parishioner. Fr. Mike used the example of someone with painting skills who might be needed every couple of years.

Please prayerfully consider filling out the "Time and Talent" form that was in last week's bulletin. It's important for the long-term strength of the parish to have a broader base of ministerial support than we currently have. A small group of people currently fill multiple needs, and as a group are getting up in age. We certainly could use some younger volunteers to pick up the slack.

And one additional note: Parents of former altar servers who are now in middle or high school, please encourage them to come back and serve one more year. I will be training servers this week, but we have essentially lost two years of training for servers due to the pandemic. It would certainly help the new servers, as well as the parish as a whole, to be able to pair our new servers with experienced ones.

Calling all Prayer Warriors

Prayer is as essential to the life of the Church as breathing is to each human life. These chaotic and troubled times call for us to come together as a Diocese in prayer. In the spirit of faith, hope and love with the Blessing of Bishop Earl Boyea we are invited to participate in a weeklong Rosary Congress to join in prayer for our Church and our world. The 3rd annual Lansing Diocese Rosary Congress will be held from Noon Sunday, October 3rd to Noon Sunday, October 10th. St. Michael Parish in Grand Ledge will open the Congress with 11:00 a.m. Mass on October 3rd and close with 11 a.m. Mass on October 10th.

During the week there will be 24-hour Perpetual Adoration of the Holy Eucharist. We will recite the Holy Rosary and Divine Mercy Chaplet at the beginning of each hour. St. Joe's have been signed up to provide prayer warriors for Tuesday, October 5th from 6:00 a.m. until Noon. We need volunteers to cover each of these hours at St. Michael's. Please call Mary Beth at (989) 227-0088 to schedule a time.

The 30th annual Lansing area Life Chain will be Sunday, Oct. 3rd.

We invite you, your family, your friends and neighbors to join this public statement promoting the sanctity of all human life. This is not a political event; it is a prayerful, peaceful witness for life. Please mark your calendar and join us at 2:30 p.m. on Oct. 3rd. For further information, call Mary Beth at 989-227-0088.

Religious Formation/Confirmation News

2nd Grade First Reconciliation and First Communion Parent + Child meeting

Is scheduled for both the school and parish religion formation families on September 26th at 1:00 p.m. in the cafeteria. Please bring your child's Baptism certificate to this meeting. For questions please contact Jen Nelson at dre.stjoseph@gmail.com or call 224-8537

“This year, the Church will celebrate Catechetical Sunday on September 19, 2021 under the theme of “Say the Word and My Soul Shall Be Healed.” On this day, catechists are acknowledged for ministry to the community. Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each baptized person plays in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith.”

Attention Altar Servers and Boys and Girls who want to be Altar Servers.

We will be reinstating the ministry of Acolyte (Altar Servers) at all Masses by the end of September. If you are interested in serving at Mass and are otherwise regularly attending Mass, I invite you to attend a brief training session at the Church on Thursday, September 23 at 4:00 p.m. The training will be taught by Deacon Eric Elstro. ~ Fr. Mike

Take Care
By Deacon Marv

Deacon Eric's excellent column of September 12 presented us with a heartfelt call to care for the disabled, and to appreciate the heroic efforts of their caregivers. A common theme running through much of Scripture may be summarized thus: Protect those least able to protect themselves.

Michigan law contains the Estates and Protected Individuals Code. This law provides a means of providing protection for those suffering from physical and/or mental disabilities or deficits. The number of people falling under this class has greatly increased over the years due to increasing lifespans. For example, one born in 1900 had an average lifespan of 47 years. A doctor recently told me that recent advances in heart medication and cardiac procedures have dramatically increased the average U.S. lifespan. The downside of a long life for many is the increased inability to adequately care for oneself.

Much of my work life as a probate judge was to provide legal oversight for protected individuals. The court would schedule hearings to determine whether an individual would need a guardian to care for the person and/or a conservator to manage property and financial matters. I join with Deacon Eric's shout-out to caregivers, also recognizing the additional care given by guardians and conservators.

Another shout-out is deserved by adult protective service workers. There are currently numerous reports of seniors being scammed out of their savings. If you reasonably suspect that a vulnerable adult may be subject to abuse, neglect, or exploitation of any kind, you should make an immediate report to the agency hotline: 855-444-3911.

As we join in in giving thanks to those who care for the vulnerable, we should keep our own spiritual eyes open to recognize those in need among us. If we meet their needs according to our ability as God may direct us, we may hear on that Final Day:
"Well done, good and faithful servant."

Attention, all Eucharistic Ministers and those who are interested in being Eucharistic Ministers

We will have a brief meeting on Thursday, October 7 at 6:00 p.m. If you are a Eucharistic Minister during Mass to the homebound or in the nursing homes and you would like to continue being a Eucharistic Minister please come to this meeting. If you are not a Eucharistic Minister and are interested in becoming one I also invite you to attend the meeting on Oct. 7. We are in desperate need of Eucharistic Ministers for all areas. Please consider participating in this very important ministry. ~ Fr. Mike

DIVINE MERCY PRAYERS FOR GRIEF

Offered by the St. Joseph Prayer Tree and Path of Divine Hope Grief Ministry

The Path of Divine Hope Grief Ministry invites those who have experienced the passing of a loved one this past year to join us after the 5PM mass on September 25th as we hold a memorial reflection with Divine Mercy chaplet. The chaplet was recommended by our Lord to St. Faustina for the repose of souls and for their families. The death of our loved ones is precious time to our Lord. We hope that you can join us for

Rest In Peace
