How can I repay the Lord for all the good done for me?
I will raise the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord.
I will pay my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people.
Lord, I am your servant.

Psalm 116:12-14, 16a

WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS
(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric's mind)

MAGNETIC PERSONALITY WISDOM

Are people with magnetic personalities by nature drawn to Superman, "The Man of Steel?" (Just wondern')

That was just one of many different thoughts that ran through my mind after I read a clip from a St. Joe Sunday Bulletin from sometime "way back when." Clue number one: the bulletin was not printed on the firm paper stock now used, but was of a newspaper grade; clue number two: there was a partial picture of the inside of our church, and it appears the communion rail was still intact, meaning this was from sometime before Vatican II in the early 1960s.

A parishioner recently found this bulletin article while doing some deep housecleaning. The clip was entitled "Personality and

Character" and was essentially a listing of various characteristics describing someone with a magnetic personality. What struck me was how closely some of the descriptions matched with our second reading from St. James last Sunday. I referenced the reading in my homily, but did not include the part in which James described divine Wisdom. James put it this way:

"wisdom from above is first of all pure, then peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits...sown in peace."

Now here are some of the qualities of a magnetic person as listed some 60 years ago: someone who speaks gently and kindly...who is unselfish and willing to serve others...a friend to all, regardless of creed, nationality or color... one who is able to converse, without being drawn into gossip...who sympathizes with those who are in trouble...who forgives acts of unkindness. There are several other bullet points, but I believe we all get the picture - there are close ties between following divine Wisdom and being attractive and magnetic to others.

Following the Lord in a gentle, merciful, peaceful way is magnetic. That means others are attracted by the way we live our lives. If we flip that coin, we probably realize that we don't want to spend time with people who are always angry, rude, merciless, unkind or gossipy. When we live our lives according to the one modeled by Jesus, we become evangelizers by our actions, as well as our words. We are like magnets drawing people to us. That's how the Church grew over the first few centuries. As the great Christian thinkers dug into the deep questions of theology, the joy that spread throughout the Christian community drew others into it - based on the desire "to have what they have."

So whether we see ourselves as "characters with personality" or "personalities with character," let's live our lives in the wisdom of the Lord and attract others to him.

Calling all Prayer Warriors

Prayer is as essential to the life of the Church as breathing is to each human life. These chaotic and troubled times call for us to come together as a Diocese in prayer. In the spirit of faith, hope and love ,with the Blessing of Bishop Earl Boyea we are invited to participate in a weeklong Rosary Congress to join in prayer for our Church and our world. The 3rd annual Lansing Diocese Rosary Congress will be held from Noon Sunday, October 3rd to Noon Sunday, October 10th. St. Michael Parish in Grand Ledge will open the Congress with 11:00 a.m. Mass on October 3rd and close with 11 a.m. Mass on October 10th.

During the week there will be 24-hour Perpetual Adoration of the Holy Eucharist. We will recite the Holy Rosary and Divine Mercy Chaplet at the beginning of each hour. St. Joe's have been signed up to provide prayer warriors for Tuesday, October 5th from 6:00 a.m. until Noon. We need volunteers to cover each of these hours at St. Michael's. Please call Mary Beth at (989) 227-0088 to schedule a time.

Next Sunday is Lansing's annual LIFE CHAIN

Please join us on Grand River at Brookfield Plaza in East Lansing at 2:30 p.m. for an hour of prayer for our nation. This is a beautiful way to express our gratitude for God's gift of life, while reminding our community that life is sacred and abortion is not the solution to an unplanned pregnancy. If you need further information, call Mary Beth at 989-227-0088.

Tape will be staying on the pews for the time being

Our plan originally was to remove the tape from the pews in the addition of the Church on September 19. However at the Bishop's request we will continue to provide the extra social distancing in the addition by leaving the tape up for the time being.
