“It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.” They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, “Then who can be saved?” Jesus looked at them and said, “For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God.”

WE ARE ALL
EVANGELIZERS
(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric's mind)

A SLIVER OF HOPE

"His face fell and he went away sad, for he had many possessions."

Who among us has not had an experience whereby high expectations came crashing down in an instant. We were left speechless and all we could do was walk away - sad. Maybe we didn't make the final cut for an athletic team our heart was set on, or were passed over for a job promotion we thought was a lock. We can probably think of many scenarios whereby an anticipated "high" drops us to a deep low in a second.

The rich man in today's gospel from Mark was mentally checking off commandments identified by Jesus "Thou shall not commit Adultery, thou shall not steal, thou shall not bear false witness." He was confident he was inheriting eternal life when Jesus said "you are only lacking one thing." His hopes were rising until Jesus concluded with "sell all you own and give the proceeds to the poor." That's when he walks away sad.

The gospel focuses not just on wealth, but on the "attachment" to riches as a barrier in our efforts to achieve eternal life. It tells us that when the pursuit of material wealth is placed ahead of our pursuit of eternal happiness, then we have placed an obstruction between us and the grace of God. To that end, any attachment we have to a particular sin (pride, selfishness, jealousy and so on) is an impediment to basking in the glory of God.

We may be clinging to these sins the way the rich man clings to his possessions. It could be that our sins possess us and not the other way around. Fortunately, we have the sacrament of Reconciliation to gain absolution from our sins and the attachment to them.

The thought of reconciliation gives me a sliver of hope for the young, rich man in today's gospel. (He is not described as "young" in Mark's gospel, but is so identified by Matthew.) Most commentaries write him off - implying that his rejection of Jesus was final. I think there are clues in the reading that provide a basis for hope.

First, the man was not cornered by Jesus, but ran up ahead of a crowd with a burning desire to "know the way." He knelt before Jesus in reverence. He thought he was on the right path, he just wanted to know more. And Mark tells us "Jesus, looking at him, loved him." It's this love that stimulates my hope for the man, who may have just been so stunned by Jesus' directive to sell all his possessions, that all he could do was walk away. I believe he walked away with Jesus' "look of love" burned into his heart - an indelible mark that could lead him to dispose of his riches in due time and follow Jesus - validating the "sliver of hope" with which he departed the Lord.

Don't we all want that "sliver of hope" that God's mercy will cover all the times we have turned and walked away from him?

Women of Hope Retreat!

Participants in the 2020 day of Reflection and Hope Retreat gave the following feedback: "my spiritual life really needed the talks"; "I needed this day so much"; "I have so many ideas to think about and put into practice in my spiritual life." These thoughts reflect just some of the spiritual gifts that can be received from a day of reflection. St. Monica Ladies Auxiliary is giving this opportunity to the women of the parish again this year at the Women of Hope Retreat. The day retreat will be held on October 23rd, at the St. Francis Retreat Center from 9:00 am to 3:00 p.m. The cost for the day is $40.00 which includes continental breakfast, lunch and snacks. (Covid safety procedures are in place.) Tickets are available at the parish office. Come to enjoy a day to hear a great speaker - Bert Schomberger - who will help guide your reflections and give your "spiritual life what it really needs." For more information call Mary Beth at (989) 227-0088.

The Ursula Klein Memorial

I'm Glad You Asked That!: Questions From Parishioners, By: Fr. John Noone

Question: Does the Pope have special power and Is the Pope able to make new rules for the Church?

Answer: The special “power” (authority and responsibility would be a better term) which the Pope has is called the “power of the keys”. If Jesus hadn’t given Peter this authority and responsibility, Peter and his successors would not have been able to make any rules or make any application of the Holy Scriptures to our daily lives. As explained in the answer to the first question in this section, the authority to bind and loose was given first to Peter, along with the keys to the kingdom of Heaven (his badge of office, so to speak), and then later to the Apostles as a group. When acting together, the bishops (successors of the Apostles) make rules which are binding on the universal (meaning Catholic) Church; provided the Pope (successor of Peter) approves the rules using the authority and responsibility given him by the “power of the keys”.

The Pope can also exercise the “power of keys” in making what is called an infallible pronouncement which is binding on the universal (Catholic) Church. There have been two such pronouncements in modern times: the dogma of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary by Pope Pius IX in 1854, and the dogma of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin by Pope Pius XII in 1950. Individual bishops also exercise their authority to bind and loose as they lead their respective dioceses on a daily basis.

This is the second of four questions that will appear here throughout the month of October. Permission from Fr. Noone was given to publish this in our bulletin.

St. Monica Ladies Auxiliary

The monthly meeting will be held on Monday, October 11th at the Columbian Hall. The meeting begins at 6:30 pm. All ladies of the parish are invited to attend for Faith, Fellowship and Food. Please call Mary Beth at (989) 227-0088 if you need more information, or need some assistance in order to attend.

Many Special Thanks

The St. Joe Senior Luncheon was full of conversation, laughter, good food, and a wonderful speaker. St. Joe parish wishes to Thank everyone that came to the luncheon, those that volunteered your time, those that baked homemade pies, and Sr. Maria Rosario for speaking after the luncheon. The afternoon was a blessing for our seniors.
