A
THANKSGIVING
REFLECTION
By Deacon Marv

The preamble to our Michigan Constitution begins with these words: "We the people of the State of Michigan, grateful to Almighty God for the blessings of freedom . . ."

Our Thanksgiving holiday is a good reminder to thank God for His many blessings. President Kennedy issued a proclamation in 1963, stating "Over three centuries ago, our forefathers in Virginia and in Massachusetts, far from home in a lonely wilderness, set aside a time of Thanksgiving. On the appointed day, they gave reverent thanks for their safety, for the health of their children, for the fertility of their fields, for the love which bound them together, and for the faith which united them with their God."

God deserves our heartfelt thanks for all his many blessings, not just one day per year, but 365 days a year.

WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS
(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric's mind)

THANKS (LORD, FOR BEING SO) GIVING

And thank you Deacon Marv for summing up Thanksgiving Day in a nutshell. It is a holiday that asks us to stop complaining, stop worrying and stop being angry for a moment. It is a day to put aside our heartaches and misfortunes and instead look at all the good in our lives. Deacon Marv notes in his first sentence, that our state constitution starts out with an offering of thanks for our freedom. All politics aside, Americans still have more freedom than any anyone else in the world.

And it was religious freedom that drove the Puritans to forego their country of England and seek the freedom to live their faith in a new country. Between the rough journey over and the harsh first winter they endured here, 78 percent of the adult women died. Those who attended the first Thanksgiving in 1621 were thankful, not only because of a fruitful harvest, but the simple fact they were alive.

The bottom line is that those who came over on the Mayflower accepted the fact that it would be dangerous to travel and survive here, but they were willing to do it if the trade-off was to celebrate their faith in God outside of government control. They gave thanks that Jesus was so giving. We should follow suit - he is still giving.

We can't celebrate this feast with all its trimmings on a daily basis, but, as Deacon Marv reminds us, we can be thankful every day of Jesus' sacrifice for us. Even though those of us who have a difficult time in recent months (or years) knows that we still have many blessings for which to be thankful.

Personally, I would like to thank all of you whose encouragement makes the writing of this column a pleasure. I offer a heartfelt "Happy Thanksgiving" from my household to yours.

Thanksgiving's Coming
Volunteers Still Needed

This is just a quick heads-up that the Clinton County Community Thanksgiving Dinner and Celebration will be held again this year and we are again asking St. Joe parishioners to help out.

For years now, diners have looked forward to quick breads and rolls from St. Joseph bakers and this year is no exception. Sign-up sheets for breads and rolls are at the Church exits.

We are looking for volunteer workers through our website CCThanksgiving.org. There's a link in the middle of that homepage taking you to sign-up sheets for food prep work on the days before the event or for work at the Thanksgiving celebration.

Please note that this dinner is open to all at no charge, so bring the family along and skip the mess at home. See the bulletin insert for more information on the event.

Thanks,
Deacon Eric and Mary Beth Elstro

Calling All Middle and High School Students

As you have noticed altar servers are back again at Sunday Masses. But since we lost a couple years of server training due to Covid, we don't have enough servers to cover all the Masses.

If you have been a server in the past, please prayerfully consider helping us out and serving the Lord and your parish the rest of this school year. By then we should have another young group trained. Just contact the parish office.

Thank you
Deacon Eric Elstro

Have a Happy and Blessed Thanksgiving!
