Eucharistic Adoration

“And the Word became Flesh and made His dwelling among us...” John 1:14

God did not choose to come to earth as a conquering King, but as a helpless Baby. To continue to remain close to us, He now veils Himself in the form of Bread & Wine.

It is the fourth Sunday of Advent; now is the time to stop by our Church to spend time with Our Lord, who made His dwelling among us.

If you are interested in becoming a part of our adoration team, text/call Rebecca 989-292-2072

I WANNA BE LIKE JOE

In the 1990s, the Chicago Bulls won six championships in eight years. Of course, most of us are aware that they were led by the incomparable Michael Jordan. Sports fans may argue whether he is the great basketball player of all time, but there was no denying he dominated the NBA in that decade.

After the Bulls won their first championship in 1991, Jordan made what still is considered his most popular TV ad built around the theme "I Wanna Be Like Mike." If you watched any TV in the early 1990s, you saw this Gatorade commercial of kids trying to be "Like Mike." It's somewhat ironic that the ad referred to him as Mike, when the whole world called him Michael. The writers of the ad wanted him to come across as an average Joe - hence Mike over Michael.

He proved to be anything but average on the basketball court, and his outside-of-the-game lifestyle and persona would never be confused with that of an Average Joe.

I bring this up because the "Year of St. Joseph" in the Church just ended last week and, consistent with St. Joseph's life, it ended without fanfare. If ever there was a person of honor who could be considered an Average Joe, it would be St. Joseph. He was chosen by God to raise Jesus - a responsibility one could argue the Father would only give to the greatest saint, let alone an average one. The concept of Joseph as average could be attributed to his low-key presence in the Gospel. He is not quoted anywhere in Scripture, and in this liturgical cycle doesn't even get mentioned until Christmas Eve. Yet there is no question of his greatness.

In a recent National Catholic Register article* reflecting on the end of St. Joe's year, Robert Tunmire of the Catholic Men's

Leadership Alliance said:

"He is the role model for the man, whether married or single. St. Joseph was a just man, very humble. He followed God; protected Mary; protected Jesus. Joseph portrays what we all can be and should be as men. You can look at him from any angle and go, 'Wow, that's the model!'"

In the same article, a lay minister from Minnesota had similar praise:

"For me, St. Joseph is about being present, 'He was present to Christ. He was present to his wife. He was present to the voice of God. By being present, he could virtuously act...(and) he was obedient.'"

Guys, look again at the qualities of St. Joseph as just stated. "I wanna be like Joe." How about you?

Men's Retreat:
January 14-16, 2022

We will be taking a closer look at Matthew Kelly's popular book "Rediscover Jesus" and rediscovering what we know about Jesus, who he is, who he said he was, and how that should impact our lives today. Check in on Friday begins at 5:30 pm, with Mass following at 6:30, then dinner. The retreat concludes on Sunday around 11:00am. The suggested donation for the weekend is $185. For more information or to register, visit www.stfrancis.ws or call 517-669-8321.

The Food Box

Donations help families in our community through the Emergency

Food Assistance Program at Beacon of Hope (First Baptist Church). Donations can be placed in the wooden box in the back of church, next to the free resources rack.

If each family brought just one item for the Food Box with them on Sunday, we could fill that wooden box every week.

Calling All Middle and High School Students

As you have noticed altar servers are back again at Sunday Masses. But since we lost a couple years of server training due to Covid, we don't have enough servers to cover all the Masses.

If you have been a server in the past, please prayerfully consider helping us out and serving the Lord and your parish the rest of this school year. By then we should have another young group trained. Just contact the parish office.

Thank you
