A HOLIER FAMILY PLEASE

Virtually all of the time I light a candle in front of the statues of the Holy Family, I ask Mary and Joseph to intercede for me with the Lord that He bless my family - that it become holier. (Sometimes {1 of 10}, I have a prayer that calls for a rapid response, even though I know that God operates on his own time, not mine). I know that we can all become holier, so a prayer for holiness is always in order.

I pray to the Holy Family for a holier family because, "duh", they are "The Holy Family." And what a coincidence that this should be on my mind today - the feast of "The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph." Actually today's Gospel selection from Luke is probably my favorite of the multiple Holy Family readings in the Church's three-year liturgical cycle. And I like it for the exact opposite reason I offer my regular Holy Family intercessory prayers to Mary and Joseph. I normally pray for a holier family, while in today's gospel we have the Holy Parents in a "normal" parent-child situation - allowing for a liberal understanding of the word "normal."

Many of us parents have had some sort of experience of a lost child. Even if it is only for a few minutes, a great feeling of anxiety sweeps over us. Mary and Joseph had that same panicky feeling when they realized that Jesus wasn't anywhere in their traveling party as they were heading back from Jerusalem to Nazareth after Passover. They may have thought he was just sitting in the back of another wagon playing a Jewish version of "Go Fish" with his buddy Buddy.

Of course, Jesus was instead in the middle of teachers in the temple (which was the first place I always looked if one of my kids was missing). Mary posed a very typical motherly question upon finding Jesus: "Son, why have you done this to us?" (NOTE: It's ALWAYS the kid's fault.) And Jesus responded with a standard 12-year-old's answer: "Why were you looking for me? (in 21st-century lingo "So what's the big deal?") As I mentioned earlier, most of us parents can relate. This is a story that shows the humanity of Jesus and a typical parent-child interaction. It brings to light the "family" part of Holy Family.

Now, that being said, I would be remiss if I didn't say this: The whole scenario almost falls completely apart for me when Luke tells us that Jesus left with them and was obedient. What parent can relate to that???

Secular Franciscans

Do you feel drawn to the spirituality of St. Francis or St. Clare? Do you want to be a better Catholic? Draw nearer to God? Become more Christ-like? Then you may have a vocation to the Secular Franciscan Order. We are an association of men and women - married and singles - who live and work in the world. We follow a way of life that is faithful to the original Rule and make promises to live in the way of St. Francis. Admission to the order is open to men and women, single or married, those not already members of another order, and at least 18 years of age. The Secular Franciscan Order was established by St. Francis of Assisi more than 800 years ago. Our purpose is to bring the Gospel to life where we live and where we work. We look for ways to embrace the Gospel in our lives and try to help others to do likewise.

If you feel called to explore this way of life, please contact Michelle Bryk, OFS, 616-361-8489, michellebofs@gmail.com. Orientation sessions will begin online on the second Sunday of each month starting in November 2021.

Calling All Middle and High School Students

As you have noticed altar servers are back again at Sunday Masses. But since we lost a couple years of server training due to Covid, we don't have enough servers to cover all the Masses.

If you have been a server in the past, please prayerfully consider helping us out and serving the Lord and your parish the rest of this school year. By then we should have another young group trained. Just contact the parish office.

Thank you

Deacon Eric Elstro

Receiving Holy Eucharist on the tongue.

For those of you who wish to partake of Holy Communion on the tongue, Fr. Mike will be distributing the Eucharist both ways (by hand and on the tongue). If you wish to receive on the tongue, please only go to Fr. Mike as he is the only one distributing the Eucharist both ways.

Thank-You
