A SHORT MAN STANDS TALL

We haven't heard from our old friend G. K. Chesterton in a while so let's hear what he has to say about love, forgiveness, faith and hope:

"To love means loving the unlovable. To forgive means pardoning the unpardonable. Faith means believing the unbelievable. Hope means hoping when everything seems hopeless."

The Lord has recently taken home a man who lived by that Chesterton quote. Walt was not a tall man in stature, but many taller people looked up to him. He was looked up to because he was a man of true faith who loved well and exemplified hope to an extreme. And anyone who lives the theological virtues of faith, hope and love can't help but be forgiving along the way.

I say all this despite knowing Walt only two years while bringing the Eucharist to him and his wife Jennie at their home. What I know is not as much from him, but about him, with information from his wife, from his children and from a grandson at a recent funeral vigil. They paint a picture of how much his faith was an essential part of his life. It is perhaps tragic irony that his death came after he took a bad fall while doing his daily morning prayer. Last Sunday, we heard from St. Paul's first letter to the Corinthians about the many parts of the body dependent on the others, but if being one could be "all heart" it was Walt.

Walt's story began in Ukraine where he was born 97 years ago. His life journey could be described as an adventure movie, a profile in courage, a study in faith, a story about hope or a litany of love for God and family. It was all of the above. He grew up under Stalinist rule, fled his homeland during World War Two, and ended up in a displaced persons camp in Germany. He got an education, became a teacher, saw an opportunity to come to America and eventually ended up in Lansing working at Oldsmobile. Along the way, he learned five languages. He fell in love, got married and raised six children.

Through it all he faced hopeless situations, yet maintained hope. He had to believe in the unbelievable, which his faith allowed him to do, yet I'm told, he didn't talk about himself much. He worked at Olds for 35 years and tended his farm as well. He was open to God's plan at all times. He was well-loved because he loved well. Walt was short in stature, but he stood tall in front of all those who loved him.

Celebrating the Sacrament of Marriage - Sunday, February 13

There will be a blessing for married couples at all Masses on the weekend of February 13. The vocation and sacrament of marriage is the basis for the family, the domestic church! In marriage vows, love and honor are used as verbs. Plan to celebrate your marriage on this weekend by having a date night, exchanging gifts, going out to breakfast, or just spending the day together. To help you in your journey, check out www.foryourmarriage.org

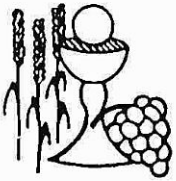

Pull out your copy of the January/February Faith magazine and reread Fr. Tad's column "What Young People Could Most Profit From Hearing About Marriage". He talks about how marriage and raising a family are becoming revolutionary acts in today's world. Yet they are essential as something positive and hopeful about the future and a push back against fear and uncertainty.

Important!! Online Giving Donors & Online Tuition Payers

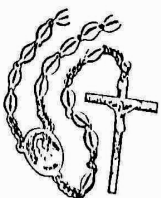

The software company that administers our online giving program has moved us to their updated software called ParishSOFT Giving.

If you had recurring gifts/payments set up in the old platform, your information was automatically converted to the new program and your gifts/payments will continue. When you log in for the first time, you'll have a couple of extra steps and will use an email address instead of your old user ID. It is important to use the same email address as your former online giving account and follow these setup steps:

1. Click "Register a New Account" on the new online giving login page.
2. Update any out-of-date information in your donor profile.

If you don't have a recurring gift/payment scheduled, you can create an account in ParishSOFT Giving by following the link from our parish's or school's website.

Despite the short lead time for us, they assure us that the new program allows for an easier experience for you, our parishioners. If you have any questions, contact Susan in the parish office at 989-224-8994.

The Rosary is prayed every Sunday morning 1/2 hour before Mass at the 8 a.m., 10 a.m., and Noon Mass

A Call to Prayer for Life

First Friday offers another opportunity for us to pray for the end to abortion. The Rosary and Divine Mercy Chaplet will be said during the 5:00pm to 6:00pm hour, on Friday, February 4. These prayers will be offered for the Supreme Court Justices so they have the wisdom, knowledge and fortitude of the Holy Spirit in their deliberations on the Dobb v Jackson case. Our prayer is that the deliberations will lead to the end of Roe v Wade. Prayers will also be offered for our state as petitions begin to circulate to overturn the law that bans abortion in Michigan. It is through prayer that abortion will end and God's precious gift of life will be preserved.

Due to the rise in COVID-19 cases, the very difficult decision has been made to transition the 2022 Feast and Raffle to a virtual even to take place on March 19, 2022. This safeguards our school community while ensuring that our annual fundraiser continues.

- ~ Donate to the auction
- ~ Participate in the online auction @ <https://one.bidpal.net/stjoeffest2022>

Raffle tickets can be purchased at the Church or School Offices, or send the committee an email at stjoeffest@gmail.com. For more information go to their Facebook page at, <https://www.facebook.com/St.josephfeastandaffle99>
