HEALING FOR THE SOUL

The holidays are over. The reality of winter is settling in. Families that did gather for Christmas are now back home. We are back in our routine - and we're hurting. Some of us are suffering from a chronic, perhaps even terminal, disease. Some of us are lonely. Some of us are still mourning the loss of a loved one. All these and more are hurting in one way or another. St. Joe's response to this hurt is a prayer/healing service this Thursday, January 13th at 6:00 p.m.

Fr. Mike, Deacon Jerry and I will conduct the service that will feature prayer, Scripture, songs and anointing. The anointing by Fr. Mike will be limited to those with physical ailments, but the healing will be for all because our hurt is real whether it is in our body or in our heart and soul. This is for anyone who is hurting or wants to pray for someone else who is in pain. Who doesn't know someone who is hurting nowadays physically, mentally, spiritually or financially? We all do, don't we?

This service grew out of a meeting of the parish Knights of Columbus officers and it mushroomed from a council prayer for members into a parish-wide service. It was initially hoped that we could do it before Christmas, but for several reasons we felt it better to hold this spiritual get-together in January when life has slowed down.

While Fr. Mike is putting together a family ministry program for the parish to build up individual families (aka "the domestic church"), this healing service is really part of a wider family ministry. This family encompasses all St. Joe parishioners. Our church building is a home-away-from-home for us

- a place where we can gather together and pray for our family members. It's important that we carve out some time for our brothers and sisters, even if it means going out on a cold night in the middle of the week in the middle of January.

We scheduled the prayer service at 6:00 so that it would be early enough for those who retire early to bed, but also give time for people who work until 5:00 to get there. It will not be a long service (probably about a half-hour) but it could prove to be very fruitful and healing for many. The early Christian Church was built by believers who prayed often as a community. Group prayer proved to be a source of strength for them and allowed them to endure great persecution. Likewise, let this community prayer/healing service be a source of strength for our St. Joe family as well.

Thank You for Your Generosity and Prayers!

Well, we made it through the Christmas marathon. They are beautiful days of prayer and reflection, but they really came close together this year. Thank you for the cards, gifts and the many other ways so many of you showed your support over these busy days. I would especially like to thank everyone who served in the many ministries at the different Masses over these past weeks and those who made our Church such a beautiful space in which to pray. You folks always do an awesome job, and I am continually grateful.

God's blessings to each of you throughout the new year!

~ Fr. Mike

A Call to Prayer for Life

Looking ahead to the anniversary of Roe v Wade and the Sanctity of Human Life Sunday, your prayers are needed for the Supreme Court Justices and the end to abortion. The Justices continue to consider the Dobbs v Jackson case, that could overturn Roe v Wade. This is a time for prayers to storm Heaven for the end of abortion.

We will hold a special day of prayers on Friday January 21st with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament from 9:00am until 6:00 pm. There will be special prayers by the school children during the day, as well as time for private prayer. The rosary and Divine Mercy Chaplet will be recited during the final hour.

This is a time for action to show our legislators that abortion is not acceptable. There will be a program at the Michigan State Capitol steps on January 19th at 1:00 and then a march to the Justice Building. Please continue your prayers for an end to abortion whether you attend a public event or pray quietly at home. Prayers will save the lives of God's precious babies.
