We are always looking for people who would like to join our adoration team. There are a number of ways that you can help make the opportunity for First Friday Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament possible:

1. Commit to one hour of prayer per month. We are particularly in need during the night time hours. An hour of scheduled adoration is an indescribable gift.
2. Join our sub list. This is a very important help and allows for greater flexibility for individuals when needed.
3. Watch the bulletin and St. Joseph's Facebook page prior to First Friday for hours that are in need of an adorer.
4. Invite someone to come with you to adoration family, friends, someone who has no idea what Exposition is like.
5. Pray for the return of respect for & belief in Our Lord present in the Blessed Sacrament.

If you are interested or have questions, text/call Rebecca 989-292-2072.

LOVE IS NOT BLIND

*"Love is not blind;
That is the last thing it is.
Love is bound;
And the more it is bound,
The less it is blind."
G. K. Chesterton*

Well here it is again, St. Valentine's Day and again I will defer to the experts in talking about love, not because I haven't experienced it, but because more gifted writers than I have written so well about it over the centuries. Chesterton's quote gives us a little different perspective, and regular readers have probably noticed by now that I like different, especially when it stimulates more thought.

The term "Love is blind" can be traced back in literature to Chaucer's Merchant's Tale some 600 years ago. But it didn't really take root until William Shakespeare started using it quite regularly in his plays in the late 16th century. It shows up in Henry V, Two Gentlemen of Verona, and The Merchant of Venice. When "The Bard" liked a line, he really liked it.

Staying in the British Isles, (the most romantic country in Europe, or so the locals say), we find that a 2004 study supported the concept of "blind love." A research study by University College London found that feelings of love suppressed the activity of the areas of the brain that control critical thought. Now, it's quite possible that the love mentioned by the study was as much infatuation as love. And I bet if I asked for a show of hands from those of us who did or said something in the name of love while young and foolish (or old and foolish, or maybe just foolish), I would see a lot of hands. So take that study at face value.

But Chesterton (who was also British, by the way), wants us to look a bit deeper. In saying that "Love is not blind...love is bound" he is looking at love in the same way as St. Thomas Aquinas did when he said "love is willing the best for others." This gets us past all the tingly feelings and gets us to the heart. Love binds one heart to another.

Nowhere is it more visible than in God's love for us. If I asked again for a show of hands, I would get a 100 percent response if I asked the question: "Who of us has sinned?" Yet the Lord loves us even when we reject him, because his love is binding.

Certainly love takes on different forms (i.e. we love a spouse differently than a child), but true love is the same - it binds. And as Chesterton concludes, "the more love is bound the less it is blind." Underneath that bind is forgiveness. The more we love, the more we forgive. We need to follow the Lord in love and mercy.

Exploring "The Chosen"

Please join Deacon Eric as he takes a deep look at the popular streaming program "The Chosen." The first part of the eight-week session will start on Thursday evening March 3rd at 6:30 p.m. in the Church library. Length of each session will vary from week to week, but plan on 75 to 90 minutes.

"The Chosen" takes a look at the life of Jesus with each week highlighting an event or parable in the gospel. It is highly professional and offers considerable room for conversation and interpretation after the viewing of the episodes. This program can stimulate better understanding of Jesus and his disciples as well as a desire to study the bible at home.

If there is significant interest in a Thursday or Friday morning session, that may be added. All of those interested in the morning or evening sessions, please contact the parish office.

Mass on Tuesday, February 22 will be at 6:30 p.m.

Devotions will not take place before Mass on the 22nd.

You are welcome to attend this Mass as we celebrate this night with our Confirmation Candidates and their families.

Please also keep these young people in your prayers. For questions contact Jen Nelson at dre.stjoseph@gmail.com or call (989) 224-8537.

Our five-year Witness to Hope campaign is in its final months. We have reached the tier where 100% of our parishioners' donations are returned to St. Joe's for our projects.

Thank you to all who have supported the Witness to Hope campaign.

Below is the list of our capital projects; four are done but we have some big-ticket items left.

Our Witness to Hope Projects

- East parking lot ✓
- Sound system in church ✓
- School roof ✓
- North parking lot ✓
- Church interior—
planning in progress for 2022

- Organ refurbishing—
planned for 2022

- School windows to be scheduled
- ✓ = completed

It would be tremendously helpful as we look at budgeting for these upgrades if all unpaid pledges could be fulfilled in the coming months.

Do you want to support these projects but you missed the Witness to Hope campaign? You can make donations to our Building Fund through Online Giving or by using the gray envelope in your packet.

2022 St. Joseph Feast and Raffle

Due to the rise in COVID-19 cases, the very difficult decision has been made to transition the 2022 Feast and Raffle to a virtual even to take place on March 19, 2022. This safeguards our school community while ensuring that our annual fundraiser continues.

There are still 4 ways to support this event:

- ~ Purchase car raffle tickets
- ~ Purchase 50/50 tickets
- ~ Donate to the auction
- ~ Participate in the online auction @ <https://one.bidpal.net/stjoeast2022>

Raffle tickets can be purchased at the Church or School Offices, or send the committee an email at stjoeast@gmail.com. For more information go to their Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/St.josephfeastandaffle99>
