WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS
(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric's mind)

Sing "Hallelujah," (and bring a scorecard)

The baseball season has begun after the threat of a prolonged lockout, and baseball fans across the country are rejoicing. There are some who will actually keep official score when they attend games, though admittedly probably none under the age of 60.

But actually, the title of this column has nothing to do with baseball. I'm referencing a Mass -- not just any Mass or even any Easter Mass. I'm talking about next Saturday's Easter Vigil Mass -- the granddaddy of all liturgies each year. That's the "Hallelujah" part of the title, but there's more.

The scorecard references all the people who will receive one or more of the Catholic sacraments of initiation at the Easter Vigil. Seven people (5 adults and 2 children) will be receiving one or more of the sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist, and

Confirmation. (Seven, by the way, is a very important biblical number symbolizing wholeness or completion as in the seven days in the creation story.) Grab your scorecards now and follow along closely. (Hint: You may want to use a pencil with an eraser.)

Being baptized are the two children: 9-year old Emelie Rodriguez Cruz and 5-year old Dru Alohi Fillwock. Emelie will be receiving her First Eucharist as well. Joining Emelie for their First Communions will be her mother Gabriella Cruz Vazquez, Dru's mother Rondi Sue Fillwock, Brenden Scot Harless, and Cameron Matthew Knutson. Gabriella, Brenden, Rondi, and Cameron will also receive the sacrament of Confirmation along with Monica Porras Alor Hufnagel.

These seven people have followed different paths to get to this point; now it's up to us to not only keep all of them in our prayers this week, but to come support them at the Easter Vigil Mass - welcoming them into the parish and the Catholic faith. And I would be remiss if I didn't throw in my annual promo for the Vigil Mass itself, and it's not just because I am a deacon and am supposed to promote it. I attended many Easter Vigils before I was ordained and fell in love with the liturgy.

It begins in darkness penetrated only by the light of flickering candles held by all those in the pews. Then we are walked through salvation history via Scripture readings and psalms that carry us from creation through the Israelites' Exodus from Egypt, up to and concluding with Jesus' Resurrection on Easter Sunday. We are led from the darkness of pre-creation to the light of eternal life through Scripture, prayer, and song. This liturgy represents the essence of our faith. If you've never attended a Vigil Mass, perhaps swayed by its length, make this the year for a great spiritual experience and help us welcome our Candidates and Catechumens into full communion with the Church.

Thank you to everyone who has made a gift or pledge commitment to our Diocesan Services Appeal. Our gifts to DSA enable our diocese to provide services crucial to our parish. The programs and services funded by DSA offer direct assistance to individuals and families and to parishes, schools, and Catholic Charities agencies. "Love and good works" of the Church occur through dozens of ongoing ministries made possible by our contributions to DSA.

If you have not yet made a gift or a pledge, we invite you to do so today. Gift envelopes are available in church or the parish office. Or you may submit your gift online at www.dioceseoflansing.org/appeal. Your DSA gift will support the vital services and ministries that help bring the love of Christ to all we encounter.

As of April 3 we have reached 58.2% of our DSA goal of $96,425.00. We are grateful for these contributions from 173 of our families and invite others to join together to push us over goal. Fifty percent of the pledges over our goal will be returned to us to use in our parish's ministries.

Blessing of Easter Baskets on April 16th (Holy Saturday) at 10:30 a.m.

This is a great opportunity for families to prepare for their Easter celebration. Holy Week is long with waiting and watching. Putting together this basket gives kids (of all ages) a wonderful way to spend some time on Saturday morning preparing for our Easter Celebration.

We will gather around at the front of the altar to have this blessing. The tradition of this Easter Basket of blessed foods is shared at Easter morning breakfast. Be sure to include some Easter candy in the basket that will be the first Easter candy eaten. Some items to include may be:

BREAD which symbolizes our Lord himself, who is the Living Bread, come down from heaven to give eternal life.

MEAT (ham, sausage) which ends our time of fasting and waiting.

EGGS symbolize new life and resurrection.

SALT reminds us of our Christian duty to others.

CHEESE symbolizes the moderation that Christians should have in all things.

BUTTER molded in the shape of a Lamb reminds us of the goodness of Christ that we should have towards all things.

CANDLE which reminds us of the light of Christ and can be used during the Easter season.

FLOWERS for the joy of spring and new life.

If you have any questions, email families.stjosephchurch@gmail.com or call the parish office at (989) 224-8994. Lots of information can be found by an internet search of Catholic blessing Easter baskets.

St. Monica Ladies Auxiliary sends out a very sincere thank you to all the supporters of the Lenten Soup Suppers. Thank you to the many talented chefs who brought many delicious soups each evening. The soups were so varied and delicious it could hardly be called a sacrifice to eat only soup for supper. Thank you also to the generous bread donors.

And a special thanks goes out to those who came to enjoy the soups and made generous donations to our charities - St. Joseph Youth Group and Hannah's House. Both charities were pleased by your generosity and appreciation of their work. St. Monica Ladies Auxiliary is thankful for all those involved in this effort and look forward to providing this event again next year.

St. Monica Ladies Auxiliary

Our monthly meeting will be held on Monday, April 11th at the Columbian Hall. The meeting begins at 6:30 p.m. Meeting topics will be the election of officers and finalizing plans for the Ladies Tea. Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for baptisms, weddings, Faith Formation registrations, baptismal or confirmation sponsorship and even funerals. To register, fill out the form on the right and put it in the Sunday collection or visit
