LOOKING INSIDE "The Chosen"

I had heard about The Chosen online video series for a couple years and had somewhat dismissed it as just another Protestant presentation of Jesus. But then I started hearing positive reviews of it on Catholic radio, I heard a couple Catholic parishes in our diocese had offered it, and I had a couple parishioners ask if I might consider moderating the series here. Upon checking it out personally, I decided it was worth the effort and "Man! Has it delivered!"

What participants have been saying through the first half of the series is how the biblical figures we've read about for years have come to life in this series. What strikes home is that this series makes them out to be what intellectually we knew: that they were 'real' people. Though the writers had to write backstories for some of the figures, they have done so in a very believable manner. For example, the gospels only tell us that Mary Magdalene had been cured of demons by Jesus. The Chosen gives us a picture of what being possessed might have been like, then we see Mary's pure joy at being freed from the demons.

At the halfway point here of season one, we have seen much more of Simon than of Jesus. The writers have actually portrayed Simon as even a bit rougher around the edges than we (class participants and myself) had previously pictured him. That then makes his conversion experience when called by Jesus to be a "fisher of men" even more powerful for the viewer.

I recently read an article about how the actor who portrays Jesus (Jonathan Roumie) met last year with Pope Francis and discussed the series' international popularity. (It is available in 50 languages.) He said his challenge in this role is to show "the most ostensible traits of God's love, mercy and compassion." And that reflects on why the series is accepted and enjoyed by Christians of all denominations. The focus is on Jesus, true God and true man. Jesus, on whom our faith rests.

There are three episodes of season one to go, so I invite everyone to drop in and see for yourself what the buzz is all about. The remaining sessions are on Thursdays at 9:00 in the morning and 6:30 in the evening - April 7th, 21st, and 28th.

For those who would like to pray the Divine Mercy chaplet, but don't have anyone with whom to pray it, please note that the Divine Mercy chaplet I recorded early in the Covid crisis is available again on the parish's YouTube channel. It will be on this link:

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UC6l1mHhn4KfJ3H0XuIPABQ> through April 24th.

One more add-on here: I came across an old quote of which I am fond, which seems quite appropriate given our world situation: "In making the world... God had written, not so much a poem, but a play; a play he had planned as perfect, but which had necessarily been left to human actors and stage managers who have since made a great mess of it."

Thank you to everyone who has made a gift or pledge commitment to our Diocesan Services Appeal. Our gifts to DSA enable our diocese to provide services crucial to our parish. The programs and services funded by DSA offer direct assistance to individuals and families and to parishes, schools, and Catholic Charities agencies. "Love and good works" of the Church occur through dozens of ongoing ministries made possible by our contributions to DSA.

If you have not yet made a gift or a pledge, we invite you to do so today. Gift envelopes are available in church or the parish office. Or you may submit your gift online at www.dioceseoflansing.org/appeal. Your DSA gift will support the vital services and ministries that help bring the love of Christ to all we encounter.

As of March 27 we have reached 39.0% of our DSA goal of $96,425.00. We are grateful for these contributions from 120 of our families and invite others to join together to push us over goal. Fifty percent of the pledges over our goal will be returned to us to use in our parish's ministries.

Blessing of Easter Baskets on April 16th (Holy Saturday) at 10:30 a.m.

This is a great opportunity for families to prepare for their Easter celebration. Holy Week is long with waiting and watching. Putting together this basket gives kids (of all ages) a wonderful way to spend some time on Saturday morning preparing for our Easter Celebration.

We will gather around at the front of the altar to have this blessing. The tradition of this Easter Basket of blessed foods is shared at Easter morning breakfast. Be sure to include some Easter candy in the basket that will be the first Easter candy eaten. Some items to include may be:

BREAD which symbolizes our Lord himself, who is the Living Bread, come down from heaven to give eternal life.

MEAT (ham, sausage) which ends our time of fasting and waiting.

EGGS symbolize new life and resurrection.

SALT reminds us of our Christian duty to others.

CHEESE symbolizes the moderation that Christians should have in all things.

BUTTER molded in the shape of a Lamb reminds us of the goodness of Christ that we should have towards all things.

CANDLE which reminds us of the light of Christ and can be used during the Easter season.

FLOWERS for the joy of spring and new life.

If you have any questions, email families.stjosephchurch@gmail.com or by calling the parish office at (989) 224-8994. Lots of information can be found by an internet search of Catholic blessing Easter baskets.
