August Clouds

I have taken notice lately of a natural phenomenon that I never noticed before: the regal quality of August clouds. One of the great gifts God gives us is beauty in nature. But as we get caught up in the busy-ness of the 21st century life, it is also a gift that can be overlooked. As such, August clouds are now something that are on my own personal Doppler radar.

Unnoticed beauty, whether in nature or art, feels like a discovery even though millions of people have likely made that same discovery already. I guess it's something like panning for gold. If one finds a gold nugget then he/she is joyous and yet oblivious to the millions who have successfully panned or mined gold in the past. When it is ours, it is ours. The discovery is a personal one. And it's also an opportunity to stop and thank the Lord for the little joys available to us if we just take a moment to look.

The first time I noticed these picturesque clouds I was traveling from Lansing to St. Johns. I saw several clouds wide and tall, yet stationary. They were dark at the bottom, but bright white at the top. They weren't threatening, yet appeared powerful. A few days later, traveling east from Fowler, I saw three large clouds just hanging right in front of me, amazingly symmetrical in size and shape but without the dark-to-white pattern of the earlier ones. They reminded me much more of cotton balls perfectly arranged and stacked pyramid-style.

I have now put myself on the alert for different styles of clouds for no particular reason except to enjoy. Way back in the 1960s, singer/songwriter Joni Mitchell wrote a song that used clouds as an example of the need to look at life and love from different angles. Entitled "Both Sides Now," the song starts out on a positive note:

Rows and flows of angel
hair
And ice cream castles in the air
And feather canyons everywhere
I looked at clouds that way

She has a different take in the second verse:

But now they only block
the sun
They rain and snow on everyone
So many things I would have done
But clouds got in my way.

If I were to look at my August clouds from an airplane at 15 thousand feet, I undoubtedly would have had a different perspective. But I also hope that from that airplane view I still would have appreciated God's glory and creation in a different way. I would be observing his beauty not only in the clouds, but in the mountains, rivers, and oceans. I could have a greater appreciation of his gifts to us. Unlike Mitchell, whose song turns pessimistic and leaves her disillusioned about clouds, love, and life, I now have something more to thank God for--beauty itself.

From the Youth Minister's desk:

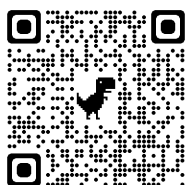

Attention High School Students

(9-12th grade)

The Youth Program is going to have a new look this year and we are really excited to have the students back!!

This new program is going to be more faith formation based. We will be holding meetings weekly on Wednesday nights from 7:15 to about 8:30. We will still be doing some fun events in addition to the new curriculum plan.

To help with planning, I have created a sign up form link posted below along with a QR code. This registration link will help me to plan for how many students will be attending on Wednesday nights and it will also help to figure how many adult volunteers are needed to assist with small groups. Stay tuned for more information. A tentative schedule will be available soon.

I look forward to meeting everyone soon!

God Bless, Chris

Greetings Brothers and Sisters in Christ!

I am Amanda Grigar,
the new RCIA Director at St. Joseph Parish.

I grew up as a Catholic child descended from Catholic immigrants who traveled fifty miles by horse and carriage in order to attend Mass.

As you can imagine, this fact was underappreciated by me in my youth. As an adult, however the level of dedication that my ancestors had to their faith has been a great inspiration to me. Those ancestors went on to help build one of the first Catholic churches in the Saginaw Diocese. We do not need to look back over one hundred fifty years to see inspiring dedication to our faith, however. Throughout my life, I have witnessed many members of the faithful called to a modern version of heroically seeking Our Lord according to their unique circumstances and responding in inspiring ways.

God is calling every one of us to a more intimate relationship with Him, and He wants to give each of us the graces necessary to be a living saint toward all those we come in contact with in our own unique way.

A little more about me: I grew up in a small town in mid-Michigan. I earned my degree in Theology from Ava Maria University. After college, I married my husband and we were blessed with two sons. Tasked with raising those young souls, God nudged me in the direction how to pass on my faith. I have spent the past decade involved in youth and adult faith formation. In my free time, I enjoy reading, outdoor activities, and our hobby farm.

Regardless of where you are on your faith journey, I look forward to accompanying you. Please keep me in your prayers and know that I am praying for you.

In Christ,

Amanda Grigar
RCIA Director

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

Our vocation begins when we say Yes to God's call and choose to follow Jesus. Our desire for holiness leads us to say "Lord, whatever You want". Discerning your vocation is life's most important decision. Who has Jesus put in your way to help with this process.

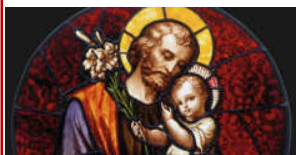

"God our Father, You made each of us to use our gifts in the Body of Christ. We ask that You inspire young people whom you call to priesthood and consecrated life to courageously follow Your will. Send workers into Your great harvest so that the Gospel is preached, the poor are served with love, and the suffering are comforted, and Your people are strengthened by the sacraments. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen"

As we continue to pray for blessings on all the priests who have brought us the sacraments over the years, we can enjoy a recipe from Msgr. Robert Lunsford (Pastor at St. Joseph in the 1980 -90's).

Fettuccine Alfredo

- 1 stick unsalted butter
- 1 C. whipping cream
- 1 C. fresh grated parmesan cheese
- 2 T fresh chopped parsley
- 1 pound fettuccine pasta
- Fresh ground pepper

Cook pasta in 4 quarts salted boiling water until al dente, about 10-12 minutes. In meantime, slowly melt butter in whipping cream over low heat. Add cheese and blend in. do not overheat or boil. Drain pasta and toss in the sauce. Add parsley and pepper as desired. Enjoy!

Renovation Prayer

St. Joseph, patron of craftsmen, through your intercession may the Holy Spirit guide all who work to renovate our worship space.

May God provide them the grace to safely transform our historic faith home into a lasting, beautiful, and welcoming place of worship.

St. Joseph, patron of families and our parish, be with us as we undertake this journey together. Amen
