THE SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

The term "Communion of Saints" refers also to the communion of "Holy Persons" (Sancti) in Christ who "died for all," so that what each one does or suffers in and for Christ bears fruit for all.

(Catechism of the Catholic Church, 961)

WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric's mind)

Life Belongs to God Alone

(NOTE: The content of this column may be too emotional for some readers, especially the parents of stillborn children or those lost via late miscarriages. It's based on the Catholic belief that abortion is wrong and that all human life, regardless of when it ends, belongs in God's hands.)

Most of today's column is actually not going to be my words. I will be relying on theology professor David Bonagura Jr. who recently wrote an article entitled Conceived to Die? Abortion and 'Medically Futile' Pregnancies. He counters the argument of abortion advocates who claim that it's better for the mother and the child to abort a child that, at best, will live only a few moments or hours. He says:

Pregnancy loss at any stage is traumatic, and it inevitably generates the question of why the Author of Life would allow expectant joy to be followed so soon by bewildering pain . . .

Without faith, it is extraordinarily difficult to face this reality.

The professor goes on to say that the unbeliever who thinks a short life in the womb has no purpose: "Does any life then have purpose?" Bonagura questions what would make a life worth it -- length, financial gain, or other accomplishments. "What makes a life worth living if you can't take anything beyond the grave?" he asks the unbeliever.

Noting that Christians are aware that "death is the path to life," Bonagura says:

Believers, though seared by the pain of miscarriage and stillbirth, entrust themselves and their children to God's mercy, through which they hope that they will one day embrace in heaven the little ones whom they could not embrace on earth.

The professor notes that when one contemplates the gruesomeness of abortion, it's hard to see that it is indeed less painful for mother and child, who, afterwards, is considered medical waste. He summarizes his article thusly:

There's a colossal difference between letting nature take its course and thwarting nature according to the demands of our selfish egos. Aborting babies who will die imminently is [belief in a false god of] expedient mercy intended to conceal the painful reality of lost life from us. "If we just get it over with now, we can forget this and move on."

But there is no moving on from directly causing a child's gruesome death. In Christian terms, to choose abortion is to run from the Cross rather than embrace it.

The case for abortion in these instances is the same one being made by abortion advocates regarding rape and incest. The Church's stand is the same: abortion is wrong. All that being said, we need to defeat Proposal 3.

A CALL TO PRAYER

Please join us for the First Friday adoration before the Blessed Sacrament. This will be a special time to pray fervently for the defeat of Proposal 3. An hour of community prayer from 5:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. will feature the Holy Rosary and Divine Mercy Chaplet. Remember, fasting will make our prayers more powerful, so please fast that day if at all possible. If you are unable to make it to the Day Chapel at 5:00 p.m., please pray wherever you may be.

Election Day, November 8, will be a day of Adoration, with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. Mass. The Rosary and Divine Chaplet will be said at 5:00 p.m. as well. Please sign up for a time to come and pray before Jesus for the defeat of Proposal 3. A sign-up sheet will be in the Day Chapel to ensure all 12 hours are covered.

FIGHT LIKE HEAVEN TO DEFEAT
PROPOSAL 3

As we approach the November election, both Bishop Boyea and Fr. Mike have encouraged us to pray, along with fasting and almsgiving, for the defeat of the extreme pro-abortion ballot initiative. Eucharistic Adoration provides us an opportunity to do two of these things: fasting from some other thing that we enjoy that uses our time, such as a TV show, gaming, or social media and then using that time to spend in pray before our Lord.

DON'T FORGET!
Daylight Savings Times ends this Sunday, November 6, 2022 at 2:00 a.m. Change your clocks back one hour.

Path of Divine Hope Grief Ministry

The death of our loved ones is precious time to our Lord Who understands and desires to accompany the brokenhearted. The Path of Divine Hope Grief Ministry seeks to provide compassion and presence as we offer support and prayer to those who are grieving. If you would like a grief minister to accompany you and your family during this time, please call the parish office or let your funeral director know.

We also say the Divine Mercy Chaplet as recommended by our Lord to St. Faustina for those who are passing away and who have passed away. Please join us for this prayer immediately after the last Saturday Mass each month. Any changes will be announced in the bulletin.

The St. Joseph Prayer Tree also offers to pray for your loved ones during this time of passing, for the repose of their soul, and for the family. Please call the parish office to request these prayers.

Please know that we are with you in heart and prayer during this time of grief.

Thank you for all who donated to the Bishop's Emergency Disaster Fund for humanitarian needs for Hurricane Ian and future disasters.

Our total amount collected was $2,360.50.

The Importance of Mass

Do I have to go to Mass every Sunday or attend one of the Masses on Saturday afternoon/evening?

Yes! Even if you have company at the house, and they don't go to Mass. You still have the obligation to attend. Every Christian is responsible to God first. We also have an obligation to give witness to His will in our lives. Going to Mass when everybody else remains home can be a powerful influence, a channel of grace that God can use to awaken others to their responsibilities to Him. If we fail to attend Mass, we give scandal by reinforcing in others the attitude that the Sunday Mass is dispensable, in addition to our own sin of neglecting the Mass.

What if I'm out of town or traveling?

No matter where we are, we still must go to Mass. We have the obligation of trying to find a Mass celebrated in our area. If we are a hundred miles from anywhere, up in the mountains camping, that's one thing. But if our travels have taken us somewhere we can get to Mass, we must attend.

What if I'm sick?

There is never sin involved if a person is sick. Even if someone is getting over a sickness and could still infect others, as in the case of flu, it is OK to stay home. But remember, it's still Sunday, and we should offer the Lord extra prayers to honor Him. What if someone else is sick, or so dependent on me that I can't leave him/her? That's a serious act of charity, and missing Mass in that situation is also not a sin.

Stewardship Parish

Reflection on Life in a Parish

My parish is composed of people like me.

I help make it what it is.

It will be friendly, if I am.

It will be holy, if I am.

Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them.

It will do great work, if I work.

It will be prayer-ful

It will make generous gifts to many causes if I am a generous giver.

It will bring others into worship, if I invite and bring them.
It will be a parish of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, of compassion, charity, and mercy, if I, who make it what it is,
am filled with these same things.

Therefore, with the help of God, I now dedicate myself to the task of being all things that I want my parish to be.
