Angel Talks, Joseph Listens

Angels appear in many books of the bible, including big roles in both infancy narratives from Luke and Matthew. In Luke, the angel Gabriel is identified, but in Matthew we are told only of "the angel of the Lord." In our gospel reading today from Matthew, the angel speaks to Joseph in a dream and the visit speaks volumes about Joseph and his role in salvation history.

We don't know what Joseph's voice sounded like (ha, ha) because he didn't get a speaking part in Scripture. But he truly is a case study of the old saying "actions speak louder than words." The angel tells Joseph to take Mary into his home for she has conceived a child through the Holy Spirit. He is told to name the child Jesus (Yahweh saves) because "he will save his people from sins." The instructions are incredible, or in today's lingo "A Big Ask." Nonetheless, in the first of three dreams featuring the angel of the Lord, Joseph does as he is told.

St. Joseph is one of my favorite saints, just because of that. He provides a wonderful example of what we should all be trying to do - God's will. He's an important figure in salvation history providing not only a link to the line of David, but a home for Mary and Jesus. He just listens to the angel's directive from God and does God's will. He just listens to God and obeys.

Think about what God asks of Joseph and how he responds. Now think of what the Lord asks of us, and how we respond. This is a great time to evaluate if we need to respond better. If we are not happy with our responses, perhaps we need to get on the hotline and give Joseph a jingle. He knows quite a bit about saying "Yes" to the Lord.

The angel of the Lord visits

Joseph two more times in Matthew's narrative and we would normally hear that gospel reading on the Sunday between the feasts of Christmas and Mary, the Holy Mother of God (New Year's Day). But there is no Sunday between those two feasts this year, so the feast of the Holy Family will be celebrated on Friday, December 30th. Once again, Joseph does as he is asked--first to take his family to a foreign land (Egypt), then to bring them back to the small town of Nazareth.

Mary deserves all the honor we send her way as the Mother of God, but let's not forget Joseph's role in the Christmas story this year. I know he doesn't need a pat on the back or an "atta boy" from me, but nonetheless I say let's raise a glass of eggnog to St. Joseph this Christmas season and say "Thanks for saying 'yes' and showing us how to do God's will."

WHY were the saints, saints? Because they were cheerful when it was difficult to be cheerful, patient when it was difficult to be patient; and because they pushed on when they wanted to stand still, and kept silent when they wanted to talk, and were agreeable when they wanted to be disagreeable. That was all.

It was quite simple and always will be.

Calling all Cookie bakers

The Clinton County Jail ministry has asked the Parish for cookies for the Christmas Eve Gathering. The Jail is at full capacity so they will distribute lots of cookies! Our Jail houses 200 men and 50 women. Hoping we can come up with 60 dozen cookies.

Any kind of cookie is good. Doesn't need to be fancy. They need to be bagged one or two per baggie. Cookies would need to be at the parish office no later than Wednesday, December 21, 2022. If you would like to drop them off sooner, they can be stored in the church office refrigerator.

Please pass this along to other cookie bakers!

9th Grade Confirmation Session

Wednesday, December 21, 2022 is the next session for all current 9th graders that are preparing for Confirmation in March 2023. This session will again include attending High School Faith Formation (Youth Group) after the Confirmation session. Please plan on attending from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Please bring your journals and textbooks with you.

If you have any questions, please contact Jen Nelson at 989-224-8537 or email at dre.stjoseph@gmail.com.

From Fr. Mike:

The Importance of Mass

I'm a parent, and I don't always go to Mass.

God holds parents accountable for the spiritual formation of their children. This is a grave responsibility. God has entrusted to parents not just a little body and personality, but He has placed into the hands of parents, their children's immortal souls. No one can take the place of parents.

If the Eucharist is not important enough to parents that they insure they are there every Sunday, what will it mean to their children? Parents who do this really teach their children that they can override (or ignore) the wisdom of the Church and the command of God, by their own personal prideful decision. This then infects every other aspect of life and any other teaching of the Church, which is really God's teacher. Pride is the heart of every sin, and the downfall of many. It was with Lucifer, Adam and Eve, and each of us when we sin, and each one of us when we sin.

Parents who do not attend Church, even if they attend sporadically, or on "big occasions," are a source of scandal to their children, and their sin is made worse by the fact that they lead their children away from God. There is no way to really gauge the importance of the parents' example.

Sometimes our families, perhaps through no fault of their own, are themselves poorly formed in the Faith. There is a difference between being a "good person," and being a faithful Christian. Being a good citizen, good neighbor, not hurting anybody, willing to help anyone, etc., does not mean we are fulfilling God's will in all things. It is foolish to point to good aspects of our lives, being satisfied with that limited sense, and ignoring other aspects that are just as important, or even more important. We need to pray for conversion of ourselves and everyone else.
