When Today is Not Really Today

As I write this, the Church is celebrating the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. As you read this, the Church is celebrating Christmas. (Ahh, the wonders of early Sunday bulletin column deadlines.)

And before I talk about Christmas (for the reader), I'd like to take one minute and reflect on today's (for the writer) feast honoring Our Lady, one of four feasts/memorials for Our Blessed Mother between December eighth and January first. For those who don't know today's (for the writer) feast, here's how Bishop Robert Barron describes it:

Though Franciscan missionaries had been laboring in Mexico for twenty years, they had made little progress. But within ten years of the appearance of Our Lady of Guadalupe practically the entire Mexican people, nine million strong, had converted to Christianity. La Morena had proved a more effective evangelist than Peter, Paul, St. Patrick, and St. Francis Xavier combined! And with that great national conversion, the Aztec practice of human sacrifice came to an end. She had done battle with fallen spirits and had won a culture-changing victory for the God of love.

The challenge for us who honor her today is to join the same fight. We must announce to our culture today the truth of the God of Israel, the God of Jesus Christ, the God of nonviolence and forgiving love. And we ought, like La Morena, to be bearers of Jesus to a world that needs him more than ever.

Today (for the reader) we are celebrating the birth of Jesus and you could say that Mary played an important part in that as well (duh!). Last week, we talked here about Joseph's role, how he said "yes" to the angel of the Lord, not once, not twice, but three times. Mary, in her Fiat as recorded in the gospel of Luke, said "Yes" to put the whole infancy narrative in motion.

The gospel on the feast of St. Lucy (Dec. 13) was the story of two sons who were given chores by their father. One said "No" but saw the error of his ways and completed his task. The other said "Yes" but did not complete his task. Mary and Joseph were each assigned a role by God, said "Yes" and went on to fulfill their roles in salvation history. As we celebrate Jesus' birthday today and look forward to a new year in the coming days, why don't we make a spiritual resolution to listen more closely for our heavenly directives, to say "Yes" to them and then follow through as Joseph and Mary did.

And why don't we all say a prayer today for those who are grieving the loss of a loved one in the past year. This will be an especially difficult day for them and they will be in need of the Lord's strength and peace to help them through. I thank all of you who take the time each week to read this column and pray that the Holy Spirit will continue in the new year to guide me in presenting relevant material to my readers, while hopefully bringing a grin or two in the process. God bless you all.

A Thank You from Fr. Mike:

As we celebrate our Lord's birth, we are often given reason to pause and cherish our blessings. This season is a great time to reflect on the goodness with which the Lord constantly fills our lives.

It is in that spirit that I would like to thank each of you for your presence in our faith community. Even if it's just simply attending Mass, your presence adds to the fullness of our community and the depth of our worship. If the Lord is calling you to do something new in the community in the coming year and you'd like to mull it over with someone, give me or one of our parish staff a call. We'd be more than happy to talk to you.

I'd also like to thank all those who have been helping us "keep things together" during the renovation. A really big "thank you" to all our cantors, lectors, musicians, ushers and all those who have helped with Mass while we've been at the Wilson Center. Also, I like to thank those of you who have sent me cards and gifts over the past couple of weeks. I really do appreciate it. Reflecting on all of these things it is clear to me that I am richly blessed to be your pastor. I thank the Lord for you and pray for His continued blessings upon you and your loved ones! Merry Christmas! ~ Fr. Mike

K-9th Grade Religious Education Classes Celebrate the Season!

The K-9th grade Religious Education Program that meets on Wednesday evenings is learning to celebrate the seasons with special nights dedicated throughout the program year. We started with the All Saints Family Night and recently the Advent Night to help families dive into living out the liturgical year. The next night for celebrating the season will be Ash Wednesday, February 22, 2023 at 6:00 p.m. as we prepare for Lent and attend Mass, then March 22, 2023 we'll learn about the month dedicated to St. Joseph. Family nights are a new addition to the regular Wednesday classes that are taught by Catechists; Jen Brewbaker (K-2nd), Karen Densmore (3-5), and Ann Gifford (608), who dedicate their time and talent so generously.

Thank you for all the donations from parishioners to help make these events (and the program a success), and to the 8th and 9th grade teens who have been helping as well!

For more information regarding K-9th religious education classes, please contact Jen Nelson at dre.stjoseph@gmail.com or call (989) 224-8537.

Youth Group is now

High School Catechesis!

This new program is more catechesis-based, focusing on forming our teens in their faith. They will establish an even better foundation before heading off into the world and to college or wherever the Lord may lead them.

We meet every Wednesday night in the basement of the church (during renovations) from 7:15– 8:30 p.m. All High Schoolers are welcome to join! Our first class after the Christmas break will be January 11.

For questions, contact Chris Groves, Youth Minister, at Youthminister.stjoseph@gmail.com

Miscellaneous Money Matters

Year-End Contribution Statements for 2022 will be mailed by the end of January. In compliance with the IRS, any donations postmarked after 12/31/22 or received in the office after 12/31/22 will be recorded as 2023 gifts. Your generosity this year toward the support of our parish has been appreciated!

Thinking about starting automatic contributions?

Click on the Online Giving link at www.stjoecatholic.com/donate to get started.

Are you already using Online Giving? Sometimes we set up automatic systems and forget to check them to make sure everything is current. Please take a few minutes to make sure that your donation amount is correct and that your credit card or bank card hasn't expired.

IRA Required Minimum Distributions: If you're 72 ½ years or older, donating your IRA required minimum distribution to the parish can be a way to pay less taxes. Contact your investment advisor and the parish office to make a direct transfer so that the distribution doesn't have to be claimed as income.

Donate stocks, bonds, or mutual funds: To avoid capital gains tax on appreciated securities, consider transferring them to St. Joe's as your donation. Contact your investment advisor and the parish office to make this transfer.

CHRISTMAS ENCOUNTER

Christmas is a special time of year: mankind is transformed through acts of peace, joy, love, generosity, friendship and goodwill. We are stirred to the depths of our souls because Christmas is the decisive encounter between God and mankind; we are different as a people since the coming of Christ. Our “Christmas encounter” with God is not a seasonal event - we can encounter Him every day!

Regardless of your background or circumstances, this is your opportunity to learn how to keep the peace, love, and joy of Christmas throughout the year.

If you would like help getting started, or have questions, those of us at St. Joseph Parish are here for you. Contact the parish office or email rcia.stjosephparish@gmail.com.

The Giving Tree Ministry

would like to thank their helpers, members of the Knights of Columbus, and all the parishioners for being so generous this year with gifts for the giving tree. Because of you, many of those less fortunate will have a gift to open on Christmas day.

Worship Space Renovation Update

The square pillars between the original part of the church and the 1981 addition have been transformed into elegant round columns.

Back in June we gave you this list of changes you'll see in our church. Check our progress against these photos.

Light-colored porcelain tiles to replace the wood paneling on the walls
New altar, ambo, and tabernacle stand.

Ivory and tan color scheme with accents of blue and metallic gold
Special paint treatment with gold motifs on the wall behind the tabernacle

Medium-brown woodwork and pews with additional spaces for wheelchairs and walkers

A devotional alcove

New frames for the Stations of the Cross

Statues of North American saints for various corners and nooks

Special lighting of the stained glass windows at the front of the extension

New carpeting

More space for gathering

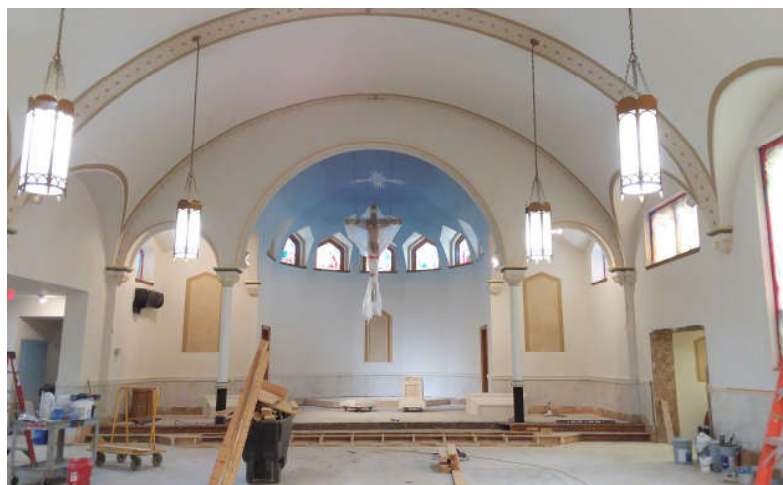

Weather-tolerant entry doors with windows

The old back wall of the worship space was opened up and a new back wall constructed. This provides us with more gathering space at the main entrance.

The old south confessional will be a devotional alcove with icons, kneelers, and votive candles.

The new altar furniture will have insets of the same marble-look tile as the walls.

When will be worshipping in our own space again? If all goes as planned, within a few weeks. There will be some unfinished items (the pews won't be installed until early February, for instance), but the majority of the work will be done.
