WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric's mind)

When Cardinal isn't Red

The word "cardinal" is one of those words in the English language that can cause problems for those trying to learn English. That's because, standing alone, "cardinal" can refer to a professional baseball player in St. Louis. Or it can refer to a professional football player in Arizona. It can also refer to a bird. Or it can refer to a high-ranking member of Catholic clergy. Then again, it could just be a shade of red. So what in the world does it mean to say there are four cardinal virtues in the Catholic Church?

The cardinal virtues are what can otherwise be termed human or moral virtues. The root word for cardinal in this case is the Latin word "cardo" meaning hinge. So the four cardinal virtues are the hinge upon which all other moral virtues turn. There are a few readers right now saying "I should know these, but I can't think of them all. Let's see, there's prudence and fortitude...and...and...oh just tell me." Okay, the other two are justice and temperance.

Most of us can rattle off the theological virtues of faith, hope and love (charity) at the drop of a hat, but the cardinal virtues may cause us to pause in trying to remember them, even if we are practicing them. But if we're not practicing them, we're probably not fulfilling them. But there's good news on that front. Unlike the theological virtues that are gifts from above -- "infused by God into the souls of the faithful," (CCC 1813) moral virtues can be attained by human effort. Cardinal virtues can and should be strengthened through human effort and repetition. Here's a novel idea, how about we identify one cardinal virtue in which we are lacking, and through effort and repetition during Lent, work to strengthen that virtue. Here's their Catechism definitions:

Prudence is the virtue that disposes practical reason to discern our true good in every circumstance and to achieve the right means of achieving it (CCC 1806).

Justice is the moral virtue that consists in the constant and firm will to give their due to God and neighbor (1807).

Fortitude is the moral virtue that ensures firmness in difficulties and constancy in pursuit in the pursuit of the good (1808).

Temperance is the moral virtue that moderates the attractions of pleasures and provides balance in the use of created goods (1809).

In a nutshell, prudence means "do the right thing." Justice calls for fairness. Fortitude is courage in faith and temperance is moderation.

If we're thinking that this may be a good idea but that Lent is a ways off in the future, I suggest a look at the calendar -- Lent is three weeks from this Wednesday (Feb. 1st). We often get surprised by the start of Lent because almost everyone year, it seems we've just recovered from Christmas. This year let's break that trend. Start thinking today about how to prepare for a successful Lent.

And for those who are trying to learn the English language, maybe you could get some help from a Catholic Cardinal or a St. Louis Cardinal, or an Arizona Cardinal or anyone dressed in red. The bird, however, can't help you.

The CHOSEN

Whether you have been following "The Chosen" through its first seasons or not, I invite all to join us as we watch and discuss season three on Thursday evenings at 6:30 p.m. starting February 9th in the St. Joes Church basement.

See what the hubbub is all about. Give it two weeks and chances are you'll want to stay with us throughout Lent. You're planning to do something Scriptural for Lent anyhow, "Right?"

Eucharistic Adoration Team

First Friday Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament:
February 3/4

The Blessed Sacrament will be Exposed for Adoration this First Friday, February 3, after the 8:30 a.m. Mass until Benediction at 8:30 a.m. Saturday morning in the Day Chapel. All are welcome.

We are in need of an adorer at the following times this month: February 3 at 9:00 a.m., 10:00 a.m., 11:00 a.m., 2:00 p.m., 5:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. and February 4 at 1:00 a.m. and 3:00 a.m.

Please text or call Rebecca at 989-292-2072 if you will attend at one of these hours. It is not necessary to have an assigned hour; however, it does help to make Exposition possible.

Friday evening at 8:00 p.m. there will be a Spanish led Rosary, prayers and song. All are welcome!
