WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric's mind)

When Ordinary Isn't Ordinary

We are in a period in the Church's liturgical cycle known as "Ordinary Time," but that really is a bit of a misnomer. In Church vernacular, "ordinary" refers to order, not a vanilla flavor to the season. This order is shown in the numerical progression of the cycle. For example, today is the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time.

It's a season of the Church that dominates in number, covering generally 34 of the 52 weeks of the year. But we really shouldn't approach them with a sense that they don't really matter the way Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter matter. While the Church may use numbers to show order, this is a great time for us to put our lives in order. Without all the distractions that come with the Advent/Christmas seasons, our lives can be put back in order. That means focusing on God, allowing us to make the Lord our number one priority again. We can take this quiet time and turn it into something extraordinary.

Today's gospel is one of those that the Church allows us some leeway, giving each presider an option of the short form or the long form. The short form focuses on Jesus as he comes out of his 40 days in the desert combating the temptations of the devil. Matthew tells us that when Jesus had heard that John the Baptist had been imprisoned, it was "show-time," it was time to move into his ministry. What a great opportunity for us to reflect on what that moment must have been like for Jesus. He knew he was here for a greater purpose than carpentry, but being fully human as well as fully divine, that must have been an emotional moment for him. It was most certainly not an "ordinary" moment.

The short gospel version today ends with Jesus' first words to the public "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." Not coincidentally, these are the same words John the Baptist preached regularly in preparing the way for Jesus.

The long version of today's gospel is a continuation of the short selection. Matthew recounts for us the calling of the fishermen to be a part of his ministry. Again, in this story of which we are all familiar, we can take some time to reflect on that moment for Simon, Andrew, James and John. They were having an "ordinary" day of fishing when the Savior of the world comes by and says "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." Their ordinary day suddenly became an extraordinary day in salvation history.

The bottom line is that these seven weeks of Ordinary Time leading up to Lent, needn't be ordinary for us. Each day the Lord gives us is a precious day. Each day is a gift. And each day, the Lord asks us to "Repent for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." Each day he asks us to drop our nets and follow him. If we do, we will find that what we thought of as ordinary time, will now indeed become extraordinary.

HEAVENLY FATHER,

the beauty and dignity of human life was the crowning of your creation. You further ennobled that life when your Son became one with us in the incarnation. Help us to realize the sacredness of human life and to respect it from the moment of conception until the last moment at death. Give us courage to speak with truth and love and with conviction in defense of life. Help us to extend the gentle hand of mercy and forgiveness to those who do not reverence your gift of life. To all grant pardon for the times we have failed to be grateful for your precious gift of life or to respect it in others. We ask this in Jesus Name. Amen.

This Monday, January 23, 2023, is to be observed as "a particular day of prayer for the full restoration of legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of human person committed through acts of abortion," as called for by the Catholic Church in our Country.

While Roe v Wade has been overturned to end the U.S. constitutional right for abortion, Michigan's passage of Proposal 3 puts the right to abortion into our state constitution. This proposal goes even further than Roe v Wade, as it allows abortion up to the birth of the child and could also remove some of the protections for babies and mothers such as parental consent, waiting periods, and inspection of facilities.

Prayers for Michigan are desperately needed so to bring a change of heart in many people. God's precious gift of life at all stages needs to be cherished and protected. There will be no specific pray services at St. Joseph's, but the Day Chapel will be open all day to allow for prayer time. It is through prayer that abortion will one day be unthinkable.

Please join us in prayer tomorrow, wherever you may be.

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

In Today's gospel we hear Jesus calling Peter, Andrew, James and John to follow him. Following Jesus was a difficult journey for these first disciples. It is difficult for us today. Jesus wants to teach us his way of thinking, acting and encountering the world. But it is not easy for us to embrace his teaching. Good stewards of Jesus' teachings realize they are on a spiritual journey, and must learn from their experiences of being open and resistant to the gospel. They realize the need to be liberated from those actions that keep them from enjoying a closer friendship with Jesus. What is it in our lives that we need to reform? What keeps us from revealing God's glory to others?
