WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric's mind)

PLENTY OF POINTS TO PONDER

In the nine years of writing this column, there have been many times when my mind went as blank as the computer monitor I was staring at. When I suffer this writer's block, I pray to the Holy Spirit for inspiration and direction. Eventually he always comes through for me. Today I have a dilemma from the opposite end of the information spectrum -- too many items (16) and not nearly the amount of space necessary to present them. Today I need the Holy Spirit to be my editor.

The Holy Spirit is actually at the heart of one of the stories, the Asbury Revival. Today (Sunday the 19th) is the 11th day of a spontaneous 24/7 spiritual revival at Asbury University in central Kentucky. A regular student prayer service became a deep spiritual experience when students felt the Spirit's presence and couldn't pull themselves away. Slowly, word spread through campus and their chapel was filled.

When word got out, people came from miles around, and by this past weekend there were long lines of people of all Christian denominations waiting to get in the Asbury chapel for prayer, praise, songs and testimonials. It was livestreamed for days before the university president announced that the revival had to be limited to two sessions a day -- an afternoon one for the public and an evening session for young adults. Check detroitcatholic.com for a Catholic perspective.)

This revival started just a couple of days before the tragic shootings at MSU. Many of us have children at MSU and many of us work there as well. That's in addition to all of us who are graduates of Michigan State. The two buildings where the shootings occurred are very familiar to me because I took so many classes at each. Though it's been decades since I've been a student, I could vividly picture the Berkey classroom in which many students were shot. Thousands of graduates have similar remembrances.

The stark contrast between these two events is immediately apparent. First, the glory of God through the Holy Spirit is celebrated, then the evil in man becomes apparent. Police say the MSU shootings were triggered by the shoot-er's perception that he was "sighted" by many people. The first murder in the bible, of course, came as a result of Cain being sighted when God accepted Abel's offering over his.

There is understandable despair over the MSU shootings. Eight people were shot, tens of thousands of others were psychologically victimized. The blood from the students will be cleaned up, but that classroom will be blood-stained forever. We need to combat evil in our culture. We need to pray for all who share the pain of the MSU community.

All is not lost however, so we must pray for all those spiritually energized at Asbury as well. Though we don't know God's grand plan, and though the revival was not a Catholic endeavor -- something good is happening there. With thousands of spiritually energized young adults emerging from Asbury there is reason for hope in the future. And, as been stated here often, "hope does not disappoint." (Rom 5:5)

Parents seeking Sacraments for Children:

If you are seeking a sacrament for yourself or your children, please make sure you are first an active, participating member of the parish. Being an active member means that you are formally registered and participating the life of the parish especially participating in community worship through weekly attendance at Weekend Masses. When you are here for Mass, it is important that you place your contribution envelope in the collection, even if it's empty. There is no other way I can possibly know how often, or even if, a person is attending Mass. Extra envelopes will be available in the back of the church in case you forgot to bring yours with you. So, please use your envelopes by placing them in the collection each time you come to Mass. This will allow me to verify a person's Mass attendance quickly and easily when they present themselves (or their children) for Baptism, First Eucharist, Confirmation or Marriage. When it comes to this policy, you should know, multiple envelopes put in at a weekend Mass will be considered participation for that one Mass. Additionally, envelopes dropped off or mailed into the parish will not be considered participation at Mass.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation on this matter.

Blessing - Fr. Mike

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

God our Father, You made each of us to use our gifts in the Body of Christ. We ask that You inspire young people whom you call to priesthood and consecrated life to courageously follow Your will. Send workers into Your great harvest so that the Gospel is preached, the poor are served with love, the suffering are comforted, and Your people are strengthened by the sacraments. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

From Fr. Mike:

The Importance of Mass

What if I'm too busy to go to Mass?

What's more important than God and fulfilling His commands? Rarely circumstances do arise that make it impossible to attend. We should still try to arrange our schedule to meet our duties to God. It has been my personal experience that even in the case of work, most employers will respect an employee's sincere desire to attend religious services on Sunday, and will arrange a work schedule to provide the time. It's not always possible, but it's worth a try. If a schedule really can't be changed, and there is no opportunity to attend Mass at another time, there is no sin. I would also say, that if you are really too busy to attend Mass, you really are too busy, and your health, and family life certainly are severely suffering. Even if we are very busy, don't we somehow find time to do what want to do?
