WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric's mind)

A Couple More Thoughts

I've got some additional thoughts and information to support Fr. Mike's great homily from last weekend. First of all, I would like to follow up on his comments in relation to the pro-life sign that was destroyed along M-21 between St. Johns and Ovid. I don't know exactly how many of those signs were destroyed, but I know of at least three, in addition to the Clinton County Right to Life banner I mentioned last week which was also ruined.

Reflecting on last Sunday's gospel of the Sower and the Seed, I wonder what type of soil the perpetrators of the vandalism possessed, the soil of the path or rocky ground in which God's word never took root, or that in which it received God's word and was choked off by thorns before bearing fruit. Will this stop other churches from displaying pro-life, pro baby signs? Is putting up more signs just going to invite more vandalism? Or do we continue to publicly promote life and pray that there will be no more destructive acts? We'll see, but this is a time when we can answer Jesus' call for us to "love our enemies?" Let's heed that call.

In a similar vein, Fr. Mike talked about the movie "Sound of Freedom", which some news outlets are calling controversial. The fact is that it is astounding a great number of critics who predicted mediocre success, because people who are going to see it don't see it as controversial. They see it as a darn good movie. It was actually finished in 2018, but the studio which originally owned the rights, Fox, was reluctant to release it. Then the Disney Corporation bought Fox and thus the rights to the movie, and it also refused to release it.

The rights were purchased this year by Angel Studios, best known for quality Christian movies and series such as "The Chosen". Through two weekends, it grossed 85 million dollars. It was second nationally last weekend only to Tom Cruise's "Mission Impossible" film. In fact, "Sound of Freedom" became the first film in American film history to pass a specific jump in gross.

Newsweek magazine says this about the increase in box office numbers:

"There have only been 10 wide-release movies in box office history that have had a second-weekend increase greater than 35 percent over their opening weekend. All of them achieved this milestone during Christmas.

I am not an accountant (nor do I play one on TV) but I do know that numbers don't always tell the whole story. The following, however, says a lot about this movie: a rating measurement called Rotten Apples which tabulates critics' views on new movies, gives Sound of Freedom a 75 out of 100 rating. The service also gives a rating of viewers and in this case gives the movie a perfect 100 out of 100 score. There's no right-wing conspiracy in those numbers. This means the movie which has now shown a profit of 70 million dollars over its 14 million dollar budget is getting great word of mouth. This scenario brings to mind a line from an old Life cereal commercial:

"Hey, Mikey, he likes it."

From Fr. Mike:

The Importance of Mass

If I can't receive Communion because I have not been to Confession, or am living in a manner that I know the Church teaches is mortally sinful, do I still have to attend Mass?

Yes. The obligation still applies even if you may not receive Holy Communion. Besides, at Mass we are in place to hear God's word proclaimed, and to receive the graces of conversion that the Holy Spirit bestows in the community worship. The celebration of the Mass is important for all because we are in the community of the Church where we are loved, and where great spiritual things happen. If we stay away, we make it impossible for these things to happen. Maybe that's where God wants us so that He can communicate a special grace for conversion to us.
