Eucharistic Adoration

"We can find God, with His Body, His Soul, and His Divinity, present in all the tabernacles of the world! If we think about it, we are more fortunate than those who lived two thousand years ago in contact with Jesus, because we have God 'really and substantially' present with us always. It's enough to visit the closest church!"

Blessed Carlos Actius

Blessed Carlos Acutis died at the age of 15 on October 12, 2006. One of his practices for becoming holy was spending time in Eucharistic Adoration. We are never too young, or too old, to start!

Are you interested in making monthly or weekly Eucharistic Holy Hour, or being a sub? Call Rebecca at 989-292-2072.

WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric's mind)

How Honest Can We Be?

At the beginning of his letters to the various faith communities that he established, St. Paul gave a description of himself that sometimes became quite lengthy. Those who read at Sunday Masses are quite familiar with sentences from these letters that seem as if they're never going to end. Paul's letter to the Romans from last Monday's Mass readings is a good example. He begins thusly: "Paul, a slave of Christ Jesus, called to be an Apostle and set apart for the Gospel of God..."

And the salutation goes on for four more lines. It is true, but from some listeners' point of view it might be seen as arrogant to identify oneself as "set apart for the Gospel of God." This comes on the heels of finding out that the quote I used from Joe Caudy's obit last week was written by Joe himself. To jog your memory here it is again: "He was funny, witty, always smiling, friendly to all and loved by many." He also described himself as having "sparkling eyes and a characteristic smirk." Again, like St. Paul, his statements were true, but could be misinterpreted by some.

That got me thinking about what each of us would say about ourselves if we were "required" to write our own obit before we could get into heaven. Maybe it would be easier if we substituted the word "resume" for obit. If we had to submit a resume to be welcomed into heaven, how would we describe ourselves in one short paragraph. We certainly would want to put our best foot forward, yet, since the Lord who knows all is the final arbiter, we know we can't hedge on the truth.

Let's assume that someone among us is a person who has lived a nearly flawless life, can that person say he/she was kind, merciful and humble? I've adopted the thinking over the years that anyone who calls himself humble, likely isn't. Isn't it prideful to say one is humble? Can we call ourselves "a slave of Christ Jesus" like Paul did. Or is it better if we stick to more outwardly obvious gifts as Joe described himself.

Also, any interviewer for a significant job is going to ask not only our gifts, but our flaws. Are we ready to place our flaws before God, or are we fearful that admitting our sins will keep us out of heaven? So, as the title of this column asks: "How Honest Can We Be?"

Of course, this is just an exercise to get us thinking. But it could be a wonderful examination of conscience, especially for those who are otherwise strong in the faith, but who don't avail themselves of the sacrament of Reconciliation. On the flip side, such an examination would help us identify our gifts so that we might better use them to strengthen the parish. That could be in the form of time, talent or treasure. Those carrying this parish in these areas are over the age of 65. Who's going support the parish 20 years from now when most of that group is gone?

It is better that we are brutally honest with ourselves now and make changes before we are face to face with Jesus -- totally dependent on his mercy and not our track record.

Lansing and need the Anointing of the Sick?

When you or your loved one is ill, receiving the Sacrament of the Sick is important. When in a Lansing area hospital, please let your attending nurse know you would like the Anointing of the Sick. They will contact the chaplain who will, in turn, contact a local priest who is "on call" to come and give you the sacrament. This is the quickest way for you or your loved one to receive the sacrament, if they didn't already receive it before going into the hospital.

If you were raised as a child in the parish:

- And are now over 18 years of age
- And you did not fill out a parish registration form
- You are NOT a registered parishioner!

Why is it important to be registered in the parish:

- We can reach you with important information about the parish and its ministries
- We have a more accurate idea of the number of parishioners we have in the parish.
- It allows us to seek your input and feedback.
- It allows you to formally support the parish financially, since envelopes will be issued to you for your use.
- We can start a sacramental record for you.
- Finally, registering can also help you have a greater sense of belonging to and ownership of the parish.

Please note:

The envelopes you receive when registering will now play an important role in the reception of the sacraments. (i.e. Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation and Marriage) in the parish. We're asking all parishioners to get into the habit of using your envelopes in the weekly collection. Even if you give online or don't have anything to put in the envelope, please submit an empty envelope. It will help us know how many registered parishioners attend a given Mass and it will also come in handy for determining if a person, presenting themselves for a sacrament, is attending Mass regularly as is required.

You can obtain a registration form from our website at www.stjoecatholic.com under forms or stop in the parish office.
