WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric's mind)

Follow the Light

"Lead, Kindly Light, amidst the encircling gloom, may you lead me on!

The night is dark and I am far from home, may you lead me on! I do not ask to see the distant scene; One step enough for me."

Such are the words of St. John Henry Newman in describing the Light of Christ. In asking for the way out of his own spiritual darkness, Newman gives us some advice that can come in handy for all of us -- we can't safely run out of the dark. We need to move slowly one step at a time. "I do not need to see the distant scene," Newman says, accepting the fact that he will go wherever the Light takes him.

We are headed into the darkest four weeks of the calendar year here in the northern hemisphere. For people with seasonal affective disorder (SAD) it is a particularly difficult stretch as they often battle depression. But it's a very difficult time as well for people who are sad for a different reason -- the first holiday season after the loss of a loved one. Please help those who have recently lost a loved one and be a light for them.

Of course, what comes in the middle of all this darkness is Christmas, when we celebrate the birth of baby Jesus. St. John the Evangelist marks this great event in his opening prologue describing the "Word Made Flesh:"

What came to be through him was life,
and this life was the light of the human race;
the light shines in the darkness,
and the darkness has not overcome it...
The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. (John 1:4-5, 9)

Even for a strong Christian, it can sometimes be difficult to trust the Lord while we're in our own personal darkness. St. John Henry Newman is trying to help us navigate through the darkness, by showing us how to move slowly toward the Light, while John the Evangelist is shouting about the greatness of the "true Light" and the fact that the darkness cannot overcome it.

When someone tells us about a great book or a great movie and says "the ending is amazing," we don't ask about the ending because we want to take the journey to get to the end on our own. We don't mind if we have to be in the dark for a while in order to reach the amazing. We come out of the darkness one step at a time. Let's follow both of our St. Johns and let the Light guide us out of the darkness.

(A light in our lives has just gone out with the passing of my wife's cousin Bridget. She had a difficult childhood, but nonetheless brought joy and energy every day. She was as happy as I've ever seen a bride on her wedding day. She loved to be loved and she loved loving others, especially her husband David and her three children. Her body struggled through numerous surgeries before giving out as the Lord called her home. She truly was a light in the darkness. May she rest in peace.)

THE GIVING TREE

Ornaments are in the baskets located in the gathering space at the back of church. Each ornament has an item that you can provide for someone in need. Your responsibility is to bring the wrapped gift, marked with the name & number found on the ornament, and place the gift in the box in the gathering space.

Please remember that the gift you provide is often the only gift that the person receives.

Please return monetary gifts to the parish office. Please do not leave in the gathering area

All gifts must be returned by Sunday, December 10th.

The Clinton Community Thanksgiving team would like to thank all St. Joseph parishioners who helped before, during and after our Thanksgiving Dinner. We served about 350 dinners, in-house and carry out.

We would like to thank our music director, Jeff Richards, for leading the music for the pre-dinner worship service and for those who sang and read during the service.

We would really like to see some people step up and join our leadership team next year. Please prayerfully consider picking up one small part of the planning or food prep. We won't overburden you!

Peace in Christ,

Deacon Eric and Mary Beth

The simple answer is No (There is a complicated answer). We should attend Mass for the Fourth Sunday of Advent (Vigil or Sunday Morning) and Mass for Christmas (Vigil, Mass during the Night, Masses on Christmas Morning). There's no 'two for one' I'm afraid! For the Weekend of 23rd/24th December, Masses will be as normal: December 23rd at 5:00 pm and December 24th at 8:00 am, 10:00 am and 12:00 pm.

SCRIP gift card fundraising!

Do you enjoy giving Gift Cards?

For those of you that aren't aware of this, our SCRIP program is open to everyone. You do not need to have a child enrolled at St Joseph's school to utilize this program.

SCRIP is a form of fundraising for our school by simply purchasing gift cards to various businesses that allow a percentage of your purchase to go back to our school at no cost to you. You can purchase cards from gas stations, restaurants, and many clothing and accessory stores. Or simply purchase a Visa Gift Card with no activation fee like so many bank and stores require.

You simply fill out our SCRIP order form that lists gift cards from various businesses and restaurants. Drop off your orders with your check at the school before 10:00 a.m. on Mondays and cards will be available for pick up Thursday in the school office.

You can find the order form on our website at St Joseph Church under School/Supporting St. Joe's/ SCRIP or in the parish office.

Kroger Community Rewards

Kroger donates millions of dollars to charities in Michigan through their rewards program that is linked directly to their customers' Kroger Plus Cards.

Sign into your Kroger digital account and begin earning money for our school. Link your Kroger Plus Card to St. Joseph Catholic School, and with each purchase you make, St. Joe's will get a percentage of your spending. Detailed information is available on the parish website under School/Supporting St. Joe's/SCRIP.

Our Lady of Guadalupe Mass

Tuesday, December 12, 2023

6:00 p.m.

St. Joseph Church

We invite ALL members of the Parish to attend

Our Lady of Guadalupe Mass Celebration

Mass will be both in English and Spanish, and will include the representation of the Apparitions of Virgin Guadalupe,

and the traditional birthday songs for the Virgin, interpreted by a Mariachi.

Saint Juan Diego Feast day, December 9th

Saint Juan Diego, you were chosen by
Our Lady of Guadalupe as an instrument to show your people and the world

that the way of the Christian is one of love, compassion, understanding, values, sacrifices,
repentance of our sins,
esteem and respect for the creation of God,
and above all,
one of humility and obedience.

You, who we know are in the Kingdom of our Lord and near our Mother, be our angel and protect us,
stay with us while we fight in this modern life without knowing, most of the time,
where to place our priorities.
Help us to pray to God,
through the Heart of our Lady of Guadalupe towards the Heart of Jesus, to obtain the gifts of the Holy Spirit,
and to use them for the good the humanity and the Church.

Amen.
