Eucharistic Adoration

Here, O Israel! The LORD is our God, the LORD alone (Dt 6:4)

This statement is meant for us all. In order to give the adoration and worship due to God, we must put aside all our false gods. In order to make time to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days, or to add an extra Mass or an hour of adoration to our weekly schedule, we need to put something else aside. What are the false gods in our lives that keep us from worshipping the LORD the way we should?

Interested in Eucharistic Adoration? Please call or text Rebecca at 989-292-2072.

WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric's mind)

November - a Month of Remembrances

At the end of October we always began the entrance procession of Sunday Mass with a litany of names -- a remembrance of all the parishioners who have passed away in the last year. It's always a moving moment because whether we had known any of those on that list or not, we realize that there are probably family members of the deceased at the Mass. And they are probably still hurting. Thus we begin not only a week of prayer and remembrances as noted by the Church in the form of All Saints Day and All Souls Day, but we move into November, a month to remember all the souls in our own part of the world who have gone before us.

We celebrate the saints on the first day of the month because they provide us with model lives that we can imitate as we try to prepare ourselves for meeting Jesus when we end our earthly lives. We can look at some saints and say "I can never do that." There are numerous examples of female saints who have raised a family, then after their husbands died, formed an order of sisters and then they founded hospitals and monasteries. We are not likely to see that nowadays, but we can isolate the qualities of those saints and strive to emulate them. We can look at the love they have for Jesus and work to strengthen our personal relationships with God. I, for example, will never be as profound a thinker as St. Thomas Aquinas or St. Augustine, but I pray for wisdom often knowing God may communicate to others through me and my communication platforms.

All Souls Day was a day for us to pray for all our loved ones and all the souls in purgatory. No matter how hard we try to live a Christian life, we sin. But in order to spend eternal life with the Lord, our souls need to be cleansed, thus we have purgatory. We can help those in purgatory by praying for them. (Though we tend to think of purgatory as a place, the Church says it may be more of a process than a place. The bottom line is purification.) We don't have to limit our prayers for the souls in purgatory to one day, or even the month of November, but we have so many people to pray for in our lives that it's nice to have a month that causes us to stop and remember. We, too, will need others to pray for us when we reach purgatory.

Though November can stir up some sadness in us, it winds down in our country with the celebration of Thanksgiving. This is not only an opportunity to thank God for all the gifts this country has been given, but to thank him for the people he placed in our lives. We wouldn't be sad at losing a loved one if God hadn't given us someone to love in the first place. We are sad because we lost someone who brought us joy. We can truly show our love for them by praying that they be cleansed and thus may come to know the ultimate joy -- eternal life with Jesus.

Pictorial Church Directory Update

A big shout out to everyone that volunteered to assist with Photo Sign-Up appointments as well as hosting the Photo Sessions Registration table. Without you, this project couldn't have succeeded! Your time and talent are very much appreciated!

Also thank you to all the parish families for your time getting photos taken for the directory. We know that your time is so important and often demanding.

Did you miss out in on getting your family photo taken by Universal Church Directories (UCD)? There is still a bit of time to submit a family photo if you missed the photography at St. Joseph Church.

Due date to submit a photo is November 13

Cost: $25 and includes a hardbound directory

If you're interested in submitting a family photo, please contact the parish office for details.

Update and timeline:

Photography at St. Joe concluded near the end of September. Family photos continue to be mailed out to families as (UCD) completes this process. The pictorial directory is in design phase, meaning selection and layout of ministry photos is in process. After the draft is submitted, proof will be sent to be approved. From there, final proof is sent out for printing.

We expect the directories to arrive at the church this spring, 2024.

We appreciate your patience in this process. We are all excited in anticipation of this new directory for our church family.

Thank you again,

Pictorial Church Directory Committee

Remembering the Parish

After providing for families and loved ones, you may wish to include St. Joseph Parish in your will. All gifts are welcome, and we ask that you prayerfully consider whether a portion of your estate should be used to continue the ministries of the parish. This can be accomplished with the words: I bequeath to St. Joseph Parish of St. Johns, Michigan, [insert amount being given or percentage of residue] to be used to support the ministry of the parish. A bequest can be a specific dollar amount, a specific piece of property, a percentage of an estate, or all or part of the residue of an estate. It is always recommended that you consult a lawyer for drafting or amending a will.
