Virtues as Bridges

(While in the vestibule of church yesterday wishing exiting Mass-goers a good week, a woman shouted "Deacon Eric, why didn't you mention the Lions during your homily today" and I answered that I devoted half my bulletin column to their last game and can't talk about them all the time. There are some readers who don't care about sports, so I'll take the next couple weeks off from Lions' talk -- after this: "congrats to Simba and the Motor City footballers for getting to the conference championship game! Now let's talk about virtues.)

I've come across a quote that I know I've used before, but since it remains timeless and thought-provoking, I thought I would dust it off and see what it generates after sitting around for three years. It comes as no surprise to many, I suppose, that the words are those of early 20th century Catholic writer G.K Chesterton:
"To love means loving the unlovable.

To forgive means pardoning the unpardonable.
Faith means believing the unbelievable.
Hope means hoping when everything seems hopeless".

His look at the three theological virtues of faith, hope and love, seasoned with a little dash of forgiveness provide great contemplation opportunities for us -- especially with the quiet time many of us create in Lent -- now only two-and-a-half weeks away. We can tackle all of these virtues or one that is most relevant in our lives. Each of these virtues can be bridges to better spiritual health for ourselves and for others.

Breaking Chesterton's statement down, we can ask ourselves: "Is there someone in my life who makes it very hard to love him or her?" Perhaps there's a parent, a child, a sibling or an in-law - anyone who, to this point, has been seemingly unlovable whom I can work harder to love.

Forgiveness can be very difficult for many of us to show. For example we can ask ourselves: "Is there someone in my life, or who once was, that hurt me so badly that I have been unable to forgive him or her?" This is might take more than a night or two of reflection to overcome, but perhaps if it is our special prayer for Lent, the Lord will grant us the compassion we need to forgive that person.

Faith and hope are virtues that are often intertwined. They require a belief in something greater than us, when the odds or maybe logic seem to indicate otherwise.

Lent is a great time to strengthen our faith and to maintain hope because it is a period when we can devote more time to prayer -- a great time to spend at church, when in the quiet outside Mass we can spend some alone time with Jesus.

We've got a little more than two weeks to think about how we are going to better ourselves during Lent. Maybe the best way, instead of just giving up pizza or beer, is to dare cross one of these Chesterton bridges.

Thank You

Elon Musk recently said, "At Space X, we specialize in converting things from impossible to late." Based on that criterion alone I'm eligible for a job at Space X. Half of January is gone and I still haven't scratched the surface with my "thank you" cards out from Christmas. I'd just like to thank everyone for all the wonderful cards, money, cakes, candies, and food I received during Christmas this year. My doctor got my meds mixed up and accidentally gave me medication for Type 2 Diabetes. Either that or he just figured it's a matter of time before I need it. Regardless, if I keep eating like I did during Christmas I'm going to need to buy larger vestments for Mass. Blessings to each of you and thank you again for your generosity and kindness.

Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Lansing and need the Anointing of the Sick?

When you or your loved one is ill, receiving the Sacrament of the Sick is important. When in a Lansing area hospital, please let your attending nurse know you would like the Anointing of the Sick. They will contact the chaplain who will, in turn, contact a local priest who is "on call" to come and give you the sacrament. This is the quickest way for you or your loved one to receive the sacrament, if they didn't already receive it before going into the hospital.

If you were raised as a child in the parish:

- And are now over 18 years of age
- And you did not fill out a parish registration form
- You are NOT a registered parishioner!

Why is it important to be registered in the parish:

- We can reach you with important information about the parish and it's ministries
- We have a more accurate idea of the number of parishioners we have in the parish.
- It allows us to seek your input and feedback.
- It allows you to formally support the parish financially, since envelopes will be issued to you for your use.
- We can start a sacramental record for you.
- Finally, registering can also help you have a greater sense of belonging to and ownership of the parish.

Please note:

The envelopes you receive when registering will now play an important role in the reception of the sacraments. (i.e. Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation and Marriage) in the parish. We're asking all parishioners to get into the habit of using your envelopes in the weekly collection. Even if you give online or don't have anything to put in the envelope, please submit an empty envelope. It will help us know how many registered parishioners attend a given Mass and it will also come in handy for determining if a person, presenting themselves for a sacrament, is attending Mass regularly as is required.

You can obtain a registration form from our website at www.stjoecatholic.com under forms or stop in the parish office.
