Eucharistic Adoration

"In a world where there is so much noise, so much bewilderment, there is a need for silent adoration of Jesus concealed in the Host. Be assiduous in the prayer of the adoration and teach it to the faithful. It is a source of comfort and light, particularly to those who are suffering."
Pope Benedict XVI

Are you interested in spending time in Eucharistic Adoration on a weekly or monthly basis? Please text/call for more information at 989-292-2072.

Deacon Eric's mind)

More and More and More...

This is being written on Good Friday, because I will be gone for nine days and need to have a couple columns "in the hopper" before I leave. That makes it difficult to be timely, so I'm going to do something a little different today and just present a few quotes that I came across from my second favorite saint, St. Thomas More. (St. Joseph, of course, is number one on my Top 100 saint list). So here's a little More, than a little more More, then a bit more More and then... well, you get the picture.

He is most famously-known as the English Chancellor who refused to bow to King Henry the Eighth's desire to divorce his first wife and marry his second in search of producing an heir. Their dispute resulted in the king's refusal to acknowledge the Pope as the leader of the Catholic Church. Henry married the second wife, Anne Boleyn, split from the Church and named himself as head of the Church of England. St. Thomas and Archbishop of Canterbury (St.) John Fisher refused to acknowledge the king's actions and were beheaded for treason. But just prior to his visit to the guillotine he offered this classic line of faith and loyalty:

I die the king's faithful servant,
but God's first.

Oh that we could all be that faithful to God. That faith is also evident in today's second quote, which underscores some of the problems the current Church is facing. Many Catholics are rejecting the Church's teaching when it counters their opinions regarding some of the social issues of the day. But for More, it is cut and dried:

Comfort in tribulation can be secured only on the sure ground of faith holding as true the words of Scripture and the teaching of the Catholic Church.

St. Thomas' family was well off financially, given his high position in the English government. Nonetheless, he offers up these words of wisdom comparing greed and almsgiving.

It's wrong to deprive someone else of a pleasure so that you can enjoy one yourself, but to deprive yourself of a pleasure so that you can add to someone else's enjoyment is an act of humanity by which you always gain more than you lose.

And I'll close today with this St. Thomas More gem on riding out personal storms:

You must not abandon the ship in a storm because you cannot control the winds....What you cannot turn to good, you must at least make as little bad as you can.

Enjoy St. Thomas and remember: there's More where that came from.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

*God our Father, You made each of us to use our gifts in the Body of Christ. We ask that You inspire young people whom you call to the priesthood and consecrated life to courageously follow Your will. Send workers into Your great harvest so that the Gospel is preached, the poor are served with love, the suffering are comforted, and Your people are strengthened by the sacraments. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen*

If you have not yet made a gift or a pledge, I invite you to do so today. Gift envelopes are available in church or the parish office. Or you may submit your gift online at www.dioceseoflansing.org/appeal. Your DSA gift will support the vital services and ministries that help bring the love of Christ to all we encounter.

This weekend we reached 86.6% of our DSA goal of $98,185.00 from only 216 of our 1010 families with total pledged at $85,087.28. We are grateful for these contributions and invite others to join together to push us over goal for the benefit of our parish and the wider church.

Face to Face with History: Confronting the Dark Spots of Catholic History

We all want to be inspired by the stories of heroism and sanctity we find throughout Church history, but how do we handle discussions about the not so savory people and events we encounter? In this talk, Catholic history author Phillip Campbell will discuss the problem of scandal and corruption throughout Church history. This talk will help empower you to confront historical scandals with faith, as well as handle these conversations with confidence and grace when others bring them up, remembering St. Paul's dictum, "Where sin abounds, grace abounds all the more" (Rom. 5:20)

Thursday, May 9 at 6:30 p.m.
St. Joseph Parish
109 Linden St., St. Johns

Phillip Campbell is a history teacher for Homeschool Connections and a prolific author of historical works, most known for the Story of Civilization series from TAN Books. Phillip received a Bachelor of Arts in History from Ave Maria University and a certificate in Secondary Education from Madonna University. Phillip has appeared on EWTN, Ave Maria, the Catholic Faith Network, and numerous other programs and podcasts promoting historical literacy.

If you were raised as a child in the parish:

- And are now over 18 years of age
- And you did not fill out a parish registration form
- You are NOT a registered parishioner!

Why is it important to be registered in the parish:

- We can reach you with important information about the parish and it's ministries
- We have a more accurate idea of the number of parishioners we have in the parish.
- It allows us to seek your input and feedback.
- It allows you to formally support the parish financially, since envelopes will be issued to you for your use.
- We can start a sacramental record for you.
- Finally, registering can also help you have a greater sense of belonging to and ownership of the parish.

Please note:

The envelopes you receive when registering will now play an important role in the reception of the sacraments. (i.e. Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation and Marriage) in the parish. We're asking all parishioners to get into the habit of using your envelopes in the weekly collection. Even if you give online or don't have anything to put in the envelope, please submit an empty envelope. It will help us know how many registered parishioners attend a given Mass and it will also come in handing for determining if a person, presenting themselves for a sacrament, is attending Mass regularly as is required.

You can obtain a registration form from our website at www.stjoecatholic.com under forms or stop in the parish office.
