Thanksgiving -- Let's Fight to Keep It

Thanks to the Knights of Columbus, we have yearly reminders that we need to "Keep Christ in Christmas." And we have long heard the phrase "Remember the reason for the season" that more generically reminds us to fight the commercialism that comes along with the Christmas season and instead focus on the birth of our Savior. In that same vein, I propose that we really take some time to reflect on this week's holiday and put the "thanks" back into Thanksgiving.

Certainly, the American celebration of the first Thanksgiving in 1621 is not at all comparable in importance to the birth of Jesus. But it does give us an opportunity to stop and think about everything for which we should be thankful to God. In saying at the top of the column that we need to fight to keep it, I am referencing that fact that it is being squeezed out of the fall holiday season by the commercialized bookends of Halloween and Christmas.

As soon as the shelves of school supplies become empty at the end of August and the beginning of September, they are being refilled with Halloween displays. Then as the shelves become empty again after costumes disappear, they are filled with Christmas displays, or sadly, as some national chains have mandated, "holiday displays."

Certainly the day of Thanksgiving is not in danger of disappearing, now that there is 12 hours of football to go with turkey and pumpkin pie, but in my eyes, the fight is to keep "thanks" at the top of the day's chart. Thanks to God to live in the most blessed country in the world, thanks for religious freedom (though still a struggle) and thanks for family, friends and whatever is near and dear to our hearts -- but first and foremost for the day, "thanks" to the Lord.

This is the essence of the Clinton Community Thanksgiving Celebration and Dinner. It is the coming together of people from various churches in the community to thank God for all the gifts the Lord has given us -- as individuals and as a community. The religious service to start the celebration (and "Yes" Catholics can attend) acknowledges the end of the harvest season in a spirit of thanks through psalms, songs and a remembrance of the first Thanksgiving at Plymouth Rock in 1621. The celebration includes a kids table and a big-screen TV showing the Super Bowl-Bound Lions (maybe) to go along with a traditional meal - and a not-so-traditional vegetarian lasagna.

Thanks was certainly the order of the day for the Pilgrims and Native Americans at the first Thanksgiving celebration, giving thanks for a bountiful harvest which followed a brutal winter. Though this event had been celebrated for a hundred years, it got its official recognition by President George Washington and was named a national holiday by Abraham Lincoln in 1863. The CCTCD committee would love you to join us this Thanksgiving at St. Johns Lutheran Church at 11:00 for the religious service (featuring Jeff Richards and the Mint City Singers) and 12 - 3:00 for the free dinner. Check our website for reservations or to volunteer to help at CCThanksgiving.org.

Thank you for all your help with the donations to the Marquette, Michigan homes for Veterans. This was the fourth year for this donation and everyone was so generous! It means a lot to us and the veterans that each year we've received a bigger donation than the last. It's a great feeling to know that so many people support and honor our military veterans by these generous donations. So, thank you to the St. Joseph Catholic church parishioners for allowing this to happen.

The veterans appreciate you and so do we!

The Divine Mercy Chaplet is an intercessory prayer that asks the Lord to send His mercy upon us and upon everyone living in the world. It is prayed using the rosary and takes ten minutes to pray. The chaplet is traditionally said during the hour of mercy, the 3:00 pm hour. According to the Diary of St. Faustina, Jesus promised that all who recite this chaplet at the hour of death or in the presence of the dying will receive great mercy. The Vatican has approved Jesus' promises to St. Faustina regarding the Chaplet, Divine Mercy Sunday & the Divine Mercy picture. You may want to research the many promises of mercy that Jesus made to St. Faustina. The chaplet is an intercessory prayer that extends the offering of the Eucharist so it is especially appropriate to pray it after receiving the Eucharist at Mass. Today's feature brings us back to 1995 and highlights the educational technology advancements of St. Joseph School. In 1995, the school purchased 16 new IBM computers.

Currently, St. Joseph students enjoy a computer lab with 30 desktop computers, 1:1 Chromebooks for grades 3rd through 6th, school-wide WI-FI access points, and 4K UHD Smartboards for every classroom.
