WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(AND WHATEVER ELSE IS ON DEACON ERIC'S MIND)

And the Survey Says...

Not everybody is a game show fan, but nonetheless, I'm guessing that a great number of parishioners can name the game where we hear that iconic phrase: "And the survey says..." For those pretending not to know, here's another iconic phrase from the show: "We surveyed 100 people. The top six answers are on the board." Okay, now everybody has it -- "Family Feud."

It is not the Catholic way to promote feuding, of course, but just asking a couple generations of fans who their favorite "Feud" host is can generate that. (By the way, can you name all six hosts of the game show, which first aired in 1976? Who was your favorite?) Well, let's pivot from talk about feuding, I really want to talk about surveys -- specifically a survey to be unveiled at Masses this weekend.

Hopefully, a large number of people will be able to complete it on their phones right in the pews. It will also be available via paper copies and those parishioners who don't attend St. Joe's this weekend will have an opportunity to take it as well.

Before anyone starts moaning about taking another survey, note first that it will only take about three minutes. Note also that this is a parishioner-driven survey being conducted by the adult faith formation team -- not the diocese or the parish. This survey is different from ones we took just before Covid hit due to its targeting approach to finding the faith formation opportunities most desired by parishioners. The faith formation team wants to be specific.

For example, they hope results tell us how great the desire is for more Catholic History, more in-depth teaching on the Mass and Sacraments, more prayer and spiritual growth opportunities or more Catholic teaching on morality. That last one sounds ideal for parents: "How do you teach children Catholic morality in a world that ignores it?"

This survey gives everyone a chance to identify the areas of the Catholic faith where they are lacking. And not only that, this survey asks "How do you like to learn -- through books, lectures, podcasts, small groups and so on? Then the adult faith team can set up opportunities to maximize personal spiritual growth. It's my personal opinion that with the young families moving into the parish, that St. Joe's is something of a sleeping giant ready to awaken in a burst of spiritual growth. Help the faith formation team make that happen by letting them know what you desire from your parish and we will all benefit.

*Getting back to the Family Feud, let's see what the survey of hosts says: The first host of "Family Feud" was Richard Dawson, followed by Ray Combs, Louie Anderson, Richard Karn, John O'Hurley and the current and longest-running host Steve Harvey.

Adult Faith Formation Survey

On March 9, 2000, fear over Y2K had waned, Bill Clinton was the President of the United States, the movie Whole Nine Yards was at the top of the box office and Susan Mahoney began working for St. Joseph parish. Susan began as our parish and school bookkeeper. Eventually she moved into the role of our Business Manager. Over the last 25 years, Susan helped see our parish and school through a recession, boiler replacements, renovations to the church and school, and countless other projects.

Susan will be retiring later this week after 25 years of service to St. Joseph church and school. I'd like to thank her for her dedication to St. Joseph over the years and we all wish her well in her new endeavors. Samantha Neher will be taking over as the Business Manager of our parish and school. She is from the DeWitt area, but lives here in St. Johns with her family. I'll let her share her story with you in a future bulletin article. In the meantime, I'd like to formally welcome her to St. Joseph. I'm looking forward to working with her over the coming years. Please join me in keeping both Susan and Sam in prayer.

We are truly blessed here at St. Joseph. ~ Fr. Mike

In a Lansing Area Hospital and Need the Anointing of the Sick?

When you or your loved one is ill, receiving the Sacrament of the Sick is important. When in a Lansing area hospital, please let your attending nurse know you would like the Anointing of the Sick. They will contact the chaplain who will, in turn, contact a local priest who is "on call" to come and give you the sacrament. This is the quickest way for you or your loved one to receive the sacrament, if they didn't already receive it before going into the hospital.

The Holy Spirit Bible Study meets in the church basement on Wednesday's at 4:00 p.m. Would you like to join us? Now would be a good time. We will be starting a new book, Looking to St. Francis: The Man from Assisi and His Message of Hope for Today, on April 30th. If you have any questions, please call 989-640-7413

Grief Ministry

After experiencing Holy Thursday when Jesus washed the feet of his apostles, are you feeling God calling you toward great service? The Path of Divine Hope Grief Ministry is open to new members at this time. To learn more about this parish ministry and discern whether God is calling you to help in this way, please call 989-640-7413.

Traveling Chalice for Vocations

If you love the Catholic faith and want to contribute in a meaningful way, please pray for vocations. The Knights of Columbus has provided a traveling chalice that you can take home for a week of daily prayers. The chalice is located on a table in the front of the annex. Simply sign up for the week that you want, and the chalice as well as suggested prayers are yours for that week.
