WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(AND WHATEVER ELSE IS ON DEACON ERIC'S MIND)

There's Only One

We look at a baby and say "Isn't she adorable?" We look at our second-graders, all dressed-up for their First Communion Mass and we say "Don't they look just adorable?"

Then we say we are going to Eucharistic Adoration for an hour and somehow "adoration" doesn't seem like a strong or fitting enough word to express our love for Jesus Christ.

The word adore in general use means to love and respect someone deeply, so it's not a word that "belongs" to the Catholic faith -- but it is a word that we should ideally limit to Jesus. The Catechism definition of adoration is: "the first attitude of man acknowledging that he is a creature before his Creator." As usual, the Catholic definition is a mouthful, but in essence, it is the understanding that only God, our Creator is worthy of adoration.

Before people start panicking and saying I use "adore and adorable all the time," I'm a terrible sinner," don't worry. In the examples I used at the beginning, the context makes all the difference. When we say the baby looks adorable we know that the word is used as a substitute for beautiful. In the First Communion context, adorable means huggable or loveable. If "adore" and its variants are stuck in your verbal wheelhouse, don't worry, you're not a blasphemer.

This discussion comes up, of course with Bishop Boyea's initiative to have constant Eucharistic Adoration across the diocese from Pentecost on June 8th until the feast of Corpus Christi two weeks later. It's part of the Pope's Jubilee Year of Hope. We have two 40-hour sessions assigned to St. Joe's during that time period and it's going to take a lot of new adorers to fill the hour-long time slots twice in about a week -- Sunday June 8th at 2:00 p.m. through the 9th at 10:00 p.m. and Saturday June 14th at 8:00 a.m. through Sunday the 15th at 10:00 p.m. Because of these two adoration sessions, St. Joe's has canceled First Friday adoration on June 6th.

For those who have never taken an hour or two in front of the Blessed Sacrament, this is a great opportunity to experience some "one-on-one" time with Jesus. Praying in front of the Blessed Sacrament in silence is a unique prayer experience. It allows us to better listen to Jesus with our hearts, without distraction. There are no rules of prayer to follow -- some people sit and listen, others pray rosaries. Some people read the bible or other spiritual books and some do a combination of these.

There's always someone to pray for -- the Church, the Pope, bishops and priests and anyone in our personal lives who are hurting. For those so inclined, Bishop Boyea encourages us to pray for all fallen-away Catholics. So please consider signing up for an hour or two, especially if you can do one of the overnight hours. There are sign-up sheets in the gathering space and a Sign-up Genius link for those who are digitally inclined.

~~Forty Hours Devotion~~

In the Church, there is a devotion called the Forty Hours Devotion and is a special forty-hour period of continuous prayer made before the Blessed Sacrament. The number forty has always signified a sacred period of time: the rains during the time of Noah lasted 40 days and nights; the Jews wandered through the desert for 40 years, our Lord fasted and prayed for 40 days before beginning His public ministry. The 40 Hours Devotion remembers that traditional "forty-hour period" from our Lord's burial until the resurrection.

Bishop Boyea has asked every parish in every deanery to host a 40 Hours Devotion from between the Feast of Pentecost until the weekend of the Feast of Corpus Christi. Our parish will host the 40 Hours Devotion on Sunday June 8 through the evening of Monday June 9 and again on Saturday June 14 until the evening of Sunday June 15. We need a lot of people to participate and be here during our hours of adoration. Please use the QR code (above) or sign-up sheets in the gathering space in the back of church weekend. Please help us make this time of prayer a success, sign up today!

Training Workshop

Holy Family Parish - Ovid

Saturday, May 31, 2025

8:30 a.m. - Noon

Jesus commands us to go into the world and evangelize, to share the gift of our faith with others in our everyday lives. Join SPSE Vice President Adam Janke as he leads this half-day Basic Evangelization training. The cost is $15.00 and includes all training materials as well as a continental breakfast. You can register online at stpaulse.com/ovid.

The Divine Mercy Chaplet is an intercessory prayer that asks the Lord to send His mercy upon us and upon everyone living in the world. It is prayed using the rosary and takes ten minutes to pray. The chaplet is traditionally said during the hour of mercy, the 3:00 pm hour. According to the Diary of St. Faustina, Jesus promised that all who recite this chaplet at the hour of death or in the presence of the dying will receive great mercy. The Vatican has approved Jesus' promises to St. Faustina regarding the Chaplet, Divine Mercy Sunday & the Divine Mercy picture. You may want to research the many promises of mercy that Jesus made to St. Faustina. The chaplet is an intercessory prayer that extends the offering of the Eucharist so it is especially appropriate to pray it after receiving the Eucharist at Mass. Please join the Path of Divine Hope Grief Ministry after the last Saturday Mass each month when the Divine Mercy Chaplet is said for the parishioners who died during the month. This month it will be prayed after the 5:00 p.m. mass on May 31.
