The Pursuit of Wisdom: The Church and Science (Faith and Reason)

Thursday, May 15, 2025 at 6:30 p.m.

St. Joseph Parish, lower level of the church

Today there is a popular narrative that Catholicism and science are irreconcilable enemies. Many even believe that the Church has been responsible for hindering scientific progress and continues to do so, to the point of crisis for millions who have abandoned the Faith over perceived discrepancies between Christianity and science. In this talk for teens and adults, Catholic history author and teacher Phillip Campbell will discuss the historical relationship between Catholicism and scientific inquiry. When we understand the past, we can better understand how we arrived at our current situation - and thus respond to those who believe that faith and reason are incompatible.

WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(AND WHATEVER ELSE IS ON DEACON ERIC'S MIND)

Potpourri, Three and Me

This is going to be one of those columns when I present a little bit of this and a little bit of that, a potpourri (the miscellaneous collection, not the herbal scent) of three points of interest -- including something about me. And that's where we'll start.

1. The last couple of weeks you have seen a note at the end of my column saying that the column is now available on the parish's YouTube website, but it doesn't say "why" we are doing it. This is my guess, basically, that there is a need for an audio outlet. The very first woman I visited as a home-bound Eucharistic Minister in 2017 was almost blind and could only read with the help of a machine. That process was a bit cumbersome.

For some reason, she came to mind a month or so ago. I began wondering if there's a portion of our parish that has difficulty reading the print in our Sunday bulletin and might benefit if my column were available on an audio/video outlet. So if you know someone who struggles reading the bulletin or perhaps can't attend Mass regularly and consequently doesn't get a bulletin, help them find the website and in a couple clicks they can hear the column. (Thanks to Fr. Mike for his blessing on this pilot project and Dave Collins for his technical assistance in bringing this to fruition.)

2. We had a successful retreat last weekend at St. Joe's presented by instructors from the Catholic Biblical School called "Journeying with the Apostles." There was one segment that featured chapter 21 of John's Gospel, including the gospel read this past Sunday. We did an exercise called "lectio divina" which involves reading a section of Scripture a few times until a word, a phrase or a verse strikes the reader. For me it was verse 14 that stood out: "This was now the third time Jesus was revealed to his disciples after he was raised from the dead." I knew that the number three was a number the Jew associated with perfection (i.e. the Holy Trinity, three days in the tomb), so what was John's purpose in noting this fact? I wondered.

Then "boom", it hit me -- Jesus warned his disciples three times that he would be crucified and rise on the third day, yet they were still surprised when it happened. Now he met with them three times after his Resurrection to let them know of his plans for them to carry out his words, with the help of the Holy Spirit, the Advocate.

Also today, in the long gospel version, Jesus ask Peter three times if he loved the Lord, and three times he said "Lord you know I love you." This balances out Peter's three denials that he was a disciple of Jesus after he was arrested in Gethsemane.

3. And the third potpourri topic is a short one. A documentary on the life of Blessed Carlo Acutis through the eyes of Catholic high school students played in local theaters last week. It really brought to light not only this saint-to-be's life before his death as a teenager, but also the problem teens face today with technology and depression that is leading to the highest teenager suicide rate ever. Help the teens in your life know God is always here for them.

In a Lansing area Hospital and need the Anointing of the Sick?

When you or your loved one is ill, receiving the Sacrament of the Sick is important. When in a Lansing area hospital, please let your attending nurse know you would like the Anointing of the Sick. They will contact the chaplain who will, in turn, contact a local priest who is "on call" to come and give you the sacrament. This is the quickest way for you or your loved one to receive the sacrament, if they didn't already receive it before going into the hospital.

What is the Prayer Tree?

The Prayer Tree is an organized group of individuals who pray for our parish family. Prayer requests are confidential and are not shared with anyone outside of the prayer tree members. Parishioners can add their prayer requests for themselves, family members, or friends by contacting the Parish Office at 989-224-8994. The prayer request will be passed on to the prayer tree participants within one business day.

The prayer list published in the bulletin is not the same as the Prayer Tree.

To add an immediate family member to the bulletin prayer list call the parish office 989-224-8994.

Why is it so important to register in a parish?

Registration is the official way we join a parish community. Many people think that because they attend a particular parish they automatically belong. At times young adults who have moved away for years or are still living with their parents think they are still signed up under their parent's registration. But membership requires signing up, formally enrolling yourself in a parish. Registration is a commitment to a community, a way to be included in the religious, social and ministerial activities of your parish.

We encourage and invite all adult members of our faith community (18 years or older) to register. Registration shows you belong. Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptisms, weddings, and when asked to be a sponsor/Godparent for Baptism or Confirmation. Registering in your parish is a statement of faith and confidence in the life and work of your parish. To register in our parish stop by the parish office to pick up a registration form or go on-line at our website stjoecatholic.com/forms.
