WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(AND WHATEVER ELSE IS ON DEACON ERIC'S MIND)

A NOD TO ST. JOSEPH -- And All Other Dads

I try to keep my musings fresh, and not repeat what I've done previously, but in reflecting on past Fathers Days, I found it hard today to resist recycling a bit of my 2021 Father's Day letter to St. Joseph.

Dear St. Joseph,

Happy Father's Day, although I guess every day in heaven with the Lord, your wife Mary and all the saints is a happy day. Of course, there was no such celebratory day when you were raising Jesus. Fathers just did what fathers were supposed to do, without any fanfare. In our country today, we do take a day to thank dads with cards and gifts and sometimes our kids even cut the lawn WITHOUT being told to do so.

When I was young I didn't understand all that goes into being a father and probably didn't grant my father the appreciation he deserved, although my memory of my last Father's Day with him is a fond one. Perhaps you've met my Dad. The Lord called him from this earth more than 30 years ago, so it's possible you've seen him around.

His name was Henry, although most people called him "Bud". (He was quite the punster. One Spring at dinner, he glanced out the window and said "Look at all the 'Me's' on the trees" and just kept on eating. Slowly, there were chuckles and groans from around the table). Some say I'm an apple that didn't fall far from that tree.

I went on to ask St. Joseph for his intercession on behalf of all dads, noting how us fathers could use a prayer from someone who's walked a mile in our shoes (or sandals), and who I believe has a seat pretty close to the Lord in heaven. I repeat that sentiment today while also noting that this is a sad day for many people, including some dads who have lost their own fathers in the past year.

Being a father in today's culture is difficult, being a Catholic father is even more so. In St. Joe's time parental roles were more clearly defined than they are today. A lesson I learned in deacon formation is applicable to fathers as well. We were told often to strive to be effective, to not worry about being "good," which is a relative term.

If our words or actions effect change or deep thought, then we are doing our jobs.

Studies have shown that Catholic children led by a faithful father are much more likely to maintain their faith into adulthood than those led by a mother alone. Fathers in St. Joe parish have a great opportunity today and tomorrow (June 15-16) to lead their children in the unique prayer opportunity of 40 Hours of Eucharistic Adoration.

Sign up in the gathering space for an hour of quiet prayer in front of the Blessed Sacrament -- and let your children know what you are doing. Better yet, bring one of more of your children with you to take advantage of this one-on-one time with Jesus. Or how about a trip to the baseball stadium in Lansing next Saturday -- FOR MASS.

May the Lord bless all fathers with St. Joe's gifts of faithfulness, obedience, comfort, protection, prayerfulness and humility. And let's be true Catholic Dads.

GOD BLESS our Fathers

Clinton County Right to Life wishes all fathers a very blessed Father's Day. It is through your love and care of our mothers that God's gift of life can flourish in our world. Many studies show that a strong and loving father in a home brings about a healthy life and faith for the children. Thank you to all fathers -- whether you are a father, grandfather or stepfather, your love and care is appreciated. As a little thank you to all fathers today, please take a prayer card that can be found at the end of the pew.

God bless you today and always.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Understanding Pius XII and the Holocaust
Wednesday, June 25 at 6:00 p.m.

Lower level of the church

Perhaps the most controversial modern historical event involving the Catholic Church is Pius XII's alleged indifference to the suffering of the Jewish people during the Holocaust. Join us as we look at Pius' activity before being elected pope, his silence during the time in question, what went on behind the scenes but is rarely discussed, and more.

The prayer request will be passed on to the prayer tree participants within one business day.

The Importance of Mass

Do I have to go to mass every Sunday, or attend one of the Masses on Saturday afternoon/evening?

Yes! Even if you have company at the house, and they don't go to Mass. You still have the obligation to attend. Every Christian is responsible to God first. We also have an obligation to give witness to His will in our lives. Going to Mass when everybody else remains home can be a powerful influence, a channel of grace that God can use to awaken others to their responsibilities to Him. If we fail to attend Mass, we give scandal by reinforcing in others the attitude that the Sunday Mass is dispensable, in addition to our own sin of neglecting the Mass.

What if I'm out of town or traveling?

No matter where we are, we still must go to Mass. We have the obligation of trying to find a Mass celebrated in our area. If we are a hundred miles from anywhere, up in the mountains camping, that's one thing. But if our travels have taken us somewhere we can get to Mass, we must attend.

~Fr. Mike

Prayer for Travelers

Lord, be our guide and our protector on the journey we are about to take. Watch over us. Protect us from accidents. Keep us free from harm to body and soul. Lord, support us with Your grace when we are tired. Help us be patient in any trouble which may come our way. Keep us always mindful of Your presence and love. Amen.

Traveling this summer?

MassTimes.org provides worship times, locations, contact info, websites and maps of over 117,000 churches in 201 countries and territories.

Lansing and need the Anointing of the Sick?

When you or your loved one is ill, receiving the Sacrament of the Sick is important. When in a Lansing area hospital, please let your attending nurse know you would like the Anointing of the Sick. They will contact the chaplain who will, in turn, contact a local priest who is "on call" to come and give you the sacrament. This is the quickest way for you or your loved one to receive the sacrament, if they didn't already receive it before going into the hospital.
