Adoration of the Holy Eucharist

286. What kind of worship is due to the sacrament of the Eucharist?
"The worship due to the sacrament of the Eucharist, whether during the celebration of the Mass or outside it, is the worship of latria, that is, the adoration given to God alone. The Church guards with the greatest care Hosts that have been consecrated. She brings them to the sick and to other persons who find it impossible to participate at Mass. She also presents them for the solemn adoration of the faithful and she bears them in processions. The Church encourages the faithful to make frequent visits to adore the Blessed Sacrament reserved in the Tabernacle."

WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(AND WHATEVER ELSE IS ON DEACON ERIC'S MIND)

Who Won the Crusades?

In order to answer the question: "Who won the Crusades?," we have to understand what the Crusades actually were. Were there actually good guys and bad guys? Were the Crusades political events or religious events? How many Crusades were there and did they all have the same purpose? These are just a few of the many questions that surround the Crusades and if you think I'm about to give you the answers to these questions, you've got another think coming.

What I do have is an easy path to getting these answers about the Crusades and more. On Wednesday, July 23rd, Amanda Grigar, St. Joe's adult faith director will host the second of three Summer Faith Formation sessions for adults and teens. The first session on Pope Pius XII's actions (or non-actions) relative to helping the Jews during World War Two was a huge success. Who knew that 35 people would come for such an event during the summer, when many people just shut their brains off? As such, she will now present this next session on the Crusades and a third one on The Medieval Inquisition next month.

I mentioned teens earlier, because the Crusades and the Inquisition happened some 800 years ago and are discussed in history classes, from a political, but not Catholic point of view. So parents and grandparents are encouraged to bring a teen to the next two sessions so they can connect the dots from a Catholic perspective. The Church doesn't come across as squeaky clean when one looks at the Crusades, but it's not Dr. Evil either. It's most certainly due some study.

I firmly believe that the more we understand our faith, including our history, the better Catholics we will be; better defenders of the faith we will be; and better evangelists we will be. That's why we went back 90 years to look at Pope Pius XII's words and actions during World War Two in our first summer faith formation program, and are going back more than 800 years to learn about and analyze The Crusades and The Medieval Inquisition.

Each of these summer adult faith sessions are based on booklets Amanda has worked on with Catholic history teacher and author Phillip Campbell, who has visited St. Joe's for speaking engagements a few times over the last year-and-a-half. These early evening sessions provide a great opportunity to get out of the house for a walk and still get back home before dark during this "late sunset time of the year."

Those of us who are parents encourage our kids to get some learning time in during the summer when we all have some extra time available. St. Joe's Summer Faith Formation series gives us an opportunity to practice what we preach -- and that's coming from someone who knows a bit about preaching.

Summer Faith Formation Series

Adults and teens are invited to join us as we examine two more of the most commonly misunderstood historical events involving the Catholic Church.

Wednesday, July 23 at 6:00 p.m. The Crusades

Wednesday, August 20, at 6:00 p.m. The Inquisition

Despite ending over 750 years ago, the Crusades still provoke passionate discussion. By learning about the people, events, and ideas behind the Crusades, we can clear away misunderstandings to better understand these complex events and what they mean for Catholics today.

St. Monica Ladies Auxiliary

St. Monica Ladies Auxiliary will NOT have a get-together in July, allowing everyone time for family vacations and holiday celebrations. Our next St. Monica get-together will be August 11.

The August get-together will be a "Trade Market."

More details will be forthcoming.

Is there something special you would like
Father Mike to bless?

At the top of the ramp entrance, near the sacristy door, there is a table set up for you to place any items you'd like to have blessed. Father will bless them before Mass begins, and you can easily pick them up afterward.

If you lost it....
We probably found it!

We have quite a collection of lost and found items gathered over the past few months that are looking for a good home. Perhaps it's yours? Kindly check out our lost and found box located at the back of the church (the table by the main doors) to see if we found your missing items. We have all sorts of things- coats, hats, mittens, prayer books, rosaries, children's toys, and glasses.

Items not claimed by July 20th will be sorted, cleaned and donated.

Attention All Widows/Widowers
Please join
"Kindred Friends"

at our next meeting on Wednesday, July 16, 2025
at 10:30 a.m.
In the church basement

The words of Jesus, "I was a stranger, and you welcomed Me" resounds today stronger than never. We would like to invite you to come, and see, and listen to the stories of hope and suffering of the Hispanic families, who are our brothers and sisters in our Church.

Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Carmel
The Secular Order of Discalced Carmelites

Do you feel called to a deeper life of prayer? Are you interested in following Jesus more closely in the spirit of St. Teresa of Avila and St. John of the Cross? The OCDS Community of Mary, Mother of God, queen of Carmel, in Lansing, Michigan invites you to consider life as a SECULAR CARMELITE--a beautiful way of life open to lay Catholics, married or single!

If you are a Confirmed and practicing Catholic at least 18 years old and are interested in the Secular Carmelites of Lansing, please contact Dolores Olive at oliverpls@gmail.com

As Secular Carmelites, we embrace spiritual disciplines for the good of the Church. These include praying the Liturgy of the Hours and practicing mental or contemplative prayer daily. We also gather as a community once a month to be strengthened, encouraged, and to receive ongoing formation in the ways of Carmel.

Traveling this summer?

MassTimes.org provides worship times, locations, contact info, websites and maps of over 117,000 churches in 201 countries and territories.

Prayer for Travelers

Lord, be our guide and our protector on the journey we are about to take. Watch over us. Protect us from accidents. Keep us free from harm to body and soul. Lord, support us with Your grace when we are tired. Help us be patient in any trouble which may come our way. Keep us always mindful of Your presence and love. Amen.
