PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

God our Father, You made each of us to use our gifts in the Body of Christ. We ask that You inspire young people whom you call to priesthood and consecrated life to courageously follow Your will. Send workers into Your great harvest so that the Gospel is preached, the poor are served with love, the suffering are comforted, and Your people are strengthened by the sacraments. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Eucharistic Adoration

"Look upon the hour of adoration assigned to you as an hour in paradise. Go to your adoration as one would to heaven, to the divine banquet. You will then long for that hour and hail it with joy. Take delight in fostering a longing in for it in your heart."

~St. Peter J. Eymard

We are in need of both monthly adorers and subs to help make First Friday/Saturday Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament possible. If you are interested or have questions, text or call Rebecca at 989-292-2072.

WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(AND WHATEVER ELSE IS ON DEACON ERIC'S MIND)

Did Jesus Have a Sense of Humor?

It seems like a simple question with a simple answer. Of course, he had a sense of humor, he created (fill in the name of your favorite foil,) didn't he? Although Jesus might not have been a joke teller, the late bible scholar Father Donald Senior wrote that many of his parables would have been received as humorous by the people of his day -- especially due to his use of exaggeration.

Father Donald said that since Jesus was fully human and fully divine he expressed emotions at the appropriate time -- he wept for Lazarus, he got angry at the moneychangers and so would have laughed as well. The gospels show him at multiple parties and he's often described as in the midst of a group of people. Humorous people are often found in the middle of the action at parties, so it's not a leap to say Jesus had a sense of humor. Now let's see if I do. Here's my annual mid-summer humor column.

An Irish farmer by the name of Muldoon lived by himself outside a small town in the Emerald Isle. His only companion was a faithful dog, who had been the man's best friend for a dozen years before passing away. He immediately went to his pastor, Fr. McCarthy, and asked if he could have a Mass said for the dog.

The priest said he was sorry, but he couldn't say a Mass for the dog.

"I understand, Father, I do," said Muldoon. "I guess I'll go down to that new church at the end of my road. Advise me Father Mac, do you think a donation of $500 would be sufficient to offer for the service?"

"Don't be hasty," said the pastor, "you didn't tell me that your dog was Irish."

This type of humor varies quite a bit -- some soliciting a grin, some a chuckle, some a laugh and some (although rare) a guffaw. Now I think the word guffaw is a word that in and of itself should elicit a grin. It's just a funny sounding word, don't you think? Anyhow, here is another joke at which I'm aiming for a chuckle.

One man popped up in front of St. Peter and the Pearly Gates one day and Peter was puzzled after checking the man's record in the Book of Life, telling him: "I don't know if I should let you inside the gates. I can't find anything you did in your life that was really good, but I can't find anything really bad either. I tell you what, you're in if you can tell me one really good deed you did."

So the man proceeded to tell Peter of the time he stopped to help a hitchhiker who was being bullied by a group of thugs alongside a road. The man said "I ripped the chain off the leader's jacket, waved my tire iron at them, and told them to keep their hands off the hitchhiker."

"That was really good," Peter said, "but it's not in the Book of Life. When did this happen?"

"About two minutes ago," the man replied.

Summer Faith Formation Series

Adults and teens are invited to join us as we examine two more of the most commonly misunderstood historical events involving the Catholic Church.

Wednesday, July 23 at 6:00 p.m. The Crusades
Wednesday, August 20, at 6:00 p.m. The Inquisition

Despite ending over 750 years ago, the Crusades still provoke passionate discussion. By learning about the people, events, and ideas behind the Crusades, we can clear away misunderstandings to better understand these complex events and what they mean for Catholics today.

to all the volunteers!
We can't do it without

From Fr. Mike:

What to do with your old and unwanted Religious items

A sacramental is a sacred sign that bears resemblance to the sacraments. Sacramentals include religious articles such as scapulars, blessed holy cards, crucifixes, statues, Bibles, missals, Lectionaries, holy water and oils, liturgical vestments, and altar cloths. But what are you to do with them when they break, become tattered and worn out? You can't just discard them. They're almost like people, sacred. They need to be treated properly, even at the end.

The basic rule for the disposal of these items is to burn or to bury them. During the 1800s the Church issued several decisions concerning this issue. Here are a few examples: A chalice which becomes "unserviceable" is not to be sold but must be used for some other sacred purpose or melted. Vestments, altar cloths, and linens must be destroyed. Polluted or excess holy water must be poured into the ground. Palms are to be burned, and the ashes then used for distribution on Ash Wednesday or returned to the ground. A broken rosary or religious statue normally would be buried. In all, the underlying idea is that when has been dedicated to God should be returned to God. Never should one just "throw out" what has been blessed and dedicated to God.

With the exception of rosaries which can be placed on the rosary rack, please do not bring your unwanted items to the parish nor leave them in the back of the church. I understand the idea of leaving those things for someone else to pick up and use. However, that is not happening, and items just continue to pile up. After a while this becomes a problem because it makes the church look unkept. If you don't have a fire pit to burn the items or have a yard in which to bury them, then ask a neighbor or relative if they can help you dispose of those items. This is precisely what we do with items that are left in the church.
