WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(AND WHATEVER ELSE IS ON DEACON ERIC'S MIND)

He's Back for More

Who's back? You ask. Well in what's becoming a semi-annual "must-attend" event, our favorite Catholic historian Phillip Campbell is returning to St. Joe's this week (Thursday the 23rd) to speak and answer questions on a topic that is quite timely. Campbell, who's visited us several times in the past two years, will be presenting a deep look at how the Church has come to view the "Piety for the Dead in Catholic Tradition."

While the rest of the world is wrapped up in both the fun that comes with a "Casper the Friendly Ghost" attitude toward the spirit of Halloween or teenager-focused horror world of evil-spirits and slasher movies, Phillip will give us a more focused look at Halloween, All Saints Day and All Souls Day. In doing so, Phillip will incorporate three areas of our faith that a recent parish survey indicates are of most interest to parishioners – prayer and spirituality, history and liturgy.

When we pray the Apostles Creed, we conclude by saying "I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the Communion of Saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body and life everlasting, Amen." What is the communion of saints? Who is the Catholic Church? The answer is that the Church is the Communion of Saints.

The Church is all of us walking around on this earth AND those souls in purgatory AND the saints in heaven. The three groups are referred to in Catholic circles as the Church Militant, the Church Suffering and the Church Triumphant. Those of us fighting the fight against evil are the Militant, those souls in Purgatory are the Suffering and the saints in heaven are the Triumphant. Our life goal as Catholics, therefore, is to move from the Militant to the Triumphant while hoping that our time in Suffering is minimal.

What Phillip Campbell will do is to fill in the gaps in understanding for us. In his own words he will "do a deep dive into the history, customs and spirituality behind the church's piety for the dead and leave us with a greater appreciation for the Church's tradition." Phillip says that piety for the dead is an "integral aspect of Catholic spirituality" in which we can connect with the past and, through our prayers, aid departed souls.

Those who have heard Phillip speak are aware of his straightforwardness and sense of humor while engaging in deep Catholic topics such as his most recent talk on the Church's views on science and faith. Those who haven't will likely be pleased about how he succinctly answers questions of great depth and complexity. Don't miss this engaging Catholic historian in the Church basement this Thursday, the 23rd, that will prepare us for this important upcoming spiritual "triduum" period in the Church's liturgical

Piety for the Dead in Catholic Tradition

Thursday, October 23, 2025

6:00 p.m. Join us for a Traditional All Souls' Day Treat

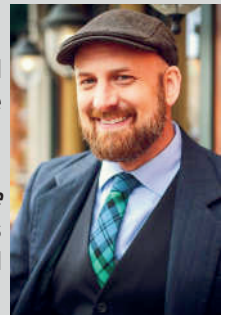

6:30 p.m. Presentation

in the Church Basement

For Catholics, the Church is not only those of us who happen to be alive and walking around--it also includes the generations who have gone before us! From time immemorial, piety for the dead has been an integral aspect of Catholic spirituality, a means whereby we connect with our past and aid the departed souls with our prayers.

In this talk, Catholic history author Phillip Campbell will do a deep dive into the history, customs, and spirituality behind the Church's piety for the dead and leave you with a greater appreciation for the Church's tradition.

Phillips Campbell is a history teacher and prolific author of historical works, most known for The Feasts of Christendom, an exhaustive resource on the major festivals of the Christian calendar. He has appeared on EWTN, Ave Maria Radio, the Catholic Faith Network, and numerous other programs and podcasts promoting historical literacy.

The Baby Shower Ministry:

October is the month of Mary. In honor of our Holy Mother, beginning October 4th and throughout the month of October, we will be filling a "Pack 'n Play" for babies and their moms to be donated to the Shared Pregnancy in Lansing. The Shared Pregnancy will accept all baby item donations but especially needs the following:

- Larger diapers (sizes 4 and up)
- Pull ups
- Baby wipes
- Paper products: facial tissue, toilet paper, and paper towels.
- Personal care items

Thank you in advance for your support!

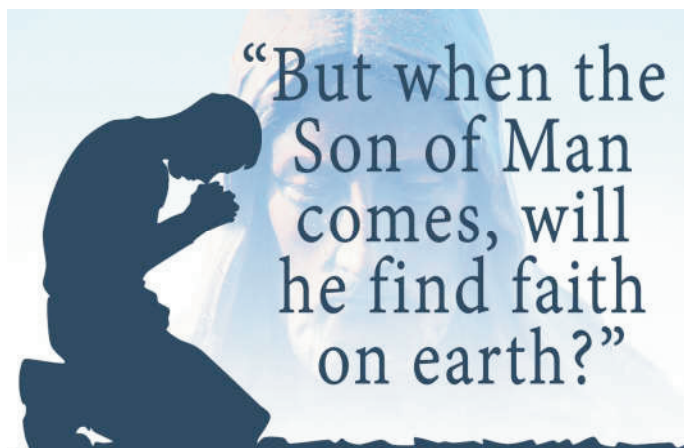

Respect Life Month

October is Respect Life Month. This month is set aside for deeper prayer and reflections on the value of human life from conception to natural death. The theme for 2025 Respect Life month is Life: Our Sign of Hope to go along with the theme of hope for the jubilee year. There are several events that can help with our prayers for life. The 40 Days for Life is a prayerful and peaceful vigil which runs from September 24 to November 2, 2025. It is held outside abortion sites to pray for those who are faced with a choice in an unplanned pregnancy. Our vigil is outside Planned Parenthood in the Frandor Center.

To sign up for a prayer time go to 40daysforlife/lansing.com

There will be a Pac 'n play in the gathering space to collect baby needs to support Shared Pregnancy. Share Pregnancy provides support and assistance to mothers who choose life. You will also see the white crosses outside church which gives a visual for the babies lost to abortion. This visual is a reminder to pray for these mothers who made this choice and to also remember those mothers who still feel they must make a choice—we pray that they choose life. I pray at the 40 Days for Life vigil site every Thursday at 2:00 p.m. You are welcome to join me or go to the website to sign up for another time. Remember that prayers are desperately needed to end the scourge of abortion in our world.
