PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

God our Father, You made each of us to use our gifts in the Body of Christ. We ask that You inspire young people whom you call to priesthood and consecrated life to courageously follow Your will. Send workers into Your great harvest so that the Gospel is preached, the poor are served with love, the suffering are comforted, and Your people are strengthened by the sacraments. WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(AND WHATEVER ELSE IS ON DEACON ERIC'S MIND)

Hope Never Ceases

With the onset of the month of November, a month in which we remember all those who have gone before us, it's important for us to revisit the virtue of hope. For the second time this year, we are having a significant run of funerals at St. Joe's. At this point, we have funerals scheduled for five straight days – a reminder that praying for all souls is a non-stop necessity for us.

Some of our non-Catholic friends wonder what we are doing by praying for souls who have left this earth. To many non-Catholics, the fate of our souls at the time of earthly death is cut and dried. If you have been saved (accepting Jesus Christ as Our Lord and Savior) or you have not. It's either heaven or hell at that moment the soul leaves the body. In essence, hope is gone.

But, as Catholics, we believe in Purgatory. We all know that we are imperfect and so we know all of us will need purification before we can move into our heavenly home. As such, we may believe that our loved ones are in heaven, but we don't know for sure. So we maintain hope and pray that those we love who may still be in Purgatory can be aided by our prayers.

I remind my readers periodically to always maintain hope. I rely on St. Paul's description of hope as he states in his letter to the Romans (Rm 5:3-5) "We even boast of our afflictions knowing that affliction produces endurance and endurance proven character and proven character hope, and hope does not disappoint." Endurance is critical for Christians in this world today, not only because it's a critical step toward hope, but also because the secular world is constantly trying to crush our spirit.

St Joe's has a checklist it gives to the family of a newly deceased parishioner to help give Fr. Mike or any other homilist an idea of the depth of the deceased's spiritual life. This is how hope is defined on this spiritual inventory list: "The virtue by which we firmly trust that God, who is all powerful and all-faithful, will in his mercy give us eternal happiness and the means to obtain it." The key word there, of course, is trust. If we can't firmly trust in God, hope doesn't have a leg on which to stand.

The four boxes on the hope checklist determine whether the deceased knew: that God's help is needed to get to heaven; that one must long to get to heaven; that one must trust God when they are ill and; that one encourages others to have hope. It most certainly is not an exhaustive list, but one in which we can check ourselves to determine if our level of hope is lacking or not.

So let's continue praying for all the souls who have left us, not just this month, but every month.

Let endurance pave the way to hope, or even better, "pray the way to hope."

Is there something special you would like Father Mike to bless?

At the top of the ramp entrance, near the sacristy door, there is a table set up for you to place any items you'd like to have blessed. Father will bless them before Mass begins, and you can easily pick them up afterward.

Sick or Homebound?

Please keep in touch! Let us know your temporary address or your situation/plans. Would you like to receive homebound Communion? Are you hospitalized? We're here for you and want to minister to your needs, offer prayers, and like to know how you're doing, etc. Just call the office with an update and we'll connect you to our Homebound Communion Team and/or add you to our prayer intentions, send mail to a different address., etc.

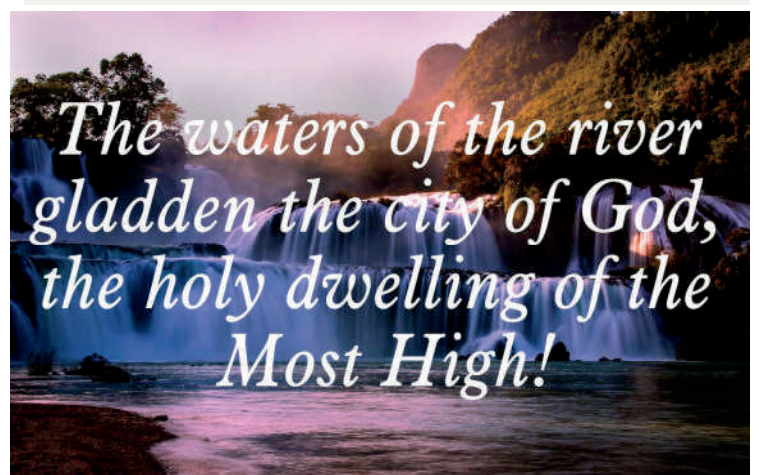

Funerals when Fr. Mike is Away from the Parish

In 1970, the average age of active Catholic priests in the US was 35. Today that average age is 63. Many older priests are being asked to postpone their retirement to compensate for the shortage, but this is only a temporary solution. In just ten years, the number of priests is set to drop even more dramatically.

Canon 533 of the Code of Canon Law states: §2. "Unless there is a grave reason to the contrary, a pastor is permitted to be absent from the parish each year for vacation for at most one continuous or interrupted month; those days which the pastor spends once a year in spiritual retreat are not computed in the time of vacation."

With the increasing shortage of active priests, it is becoming more and more difficult for the average parish priest to "get away" for any extended period of time whether for vacation, retreat or family matters. Therefore, there is a great likelihood that if a funeral was to occur during the absence of one's parish priest, the parish deacon would be called upon to preside at that funeral.

Here, in St. Joseph Church, those in the parish office will do their best to find another local priest to preside at a funeral in such a situation. However, one needs to understand that it is not always possible to find an available priest. In that situation, Deacon Jerry Fust or Deacon Eric Elstro (our parish deacons) will be called upon to preside over a funeral if such a situation should arise. If this were to occur, the family of the deceased should expect to have a Vigil Service (as usual) the night before, The Rite of Christian Burial (without Mass), a Committal Service at the graveside, and be encouraged to have a Memorial Mass for their loved one once Fr. Mike returns to the parish or at a later date.
